All to play for!

By Steve Whitney

It's all to play for in Sunday's televised Skril Premier Promotion Play-Off Semi-Final second legs.

BT Sport viewers should be in for a real treat as their Sunday lunchtime entertainment sees Cambridge United take on FC Halifax Town at the R Costings Abbey Stadium with the hosts trailing 1-0, courtesy of an 83rd minute penalty from the Shaymen's hot-shot striker Lee Gregory (pictured right) in the first leg on Wednesday night.

For long periods of the season the U's looked like going back up to the Football League automatically. However, an indifferent run by Richard Money's side and Luton Town's superb form, saw United end up a massive 19 points behind the Hatters in the end, although, of course, they did manage a 'consolation' in the shape of the FA Trophy.

Now their supporters will be looking for a quick return trip to Wembley for the Promotion Final on May 18th.

The Shaymen returned to the Conference Premier via the North play-offs this time last year, beating Yorkshire neighbours Guiseley AFC with yet another goal from Lee Gregory in the final.

And it has mainly been his goals that lifted the club into fifth spot at the expense of Braintree Town, whose massive end-of-season fixture pile-up eventually told on them.

The other semi-final is even more finely balanced after Grimsby Town and Gateshead shared a 1-1 draw at Blundell Park on Thursday evening.

Colin Larkin gave the Tynesiders the boost of an early 7th minute lead that Craig Disley cancelled out after 24 minutes.

And, despite both sides having opportunities to take a lead into Sunday afternoon's 4.30pm kick-off which again is live on BT Sport, the draw makes the second leg a thrilling prospect.

Only one point separated the two teams in the regular season, and the fact they are so evenly matched showed in the first leg.

So we have the prospect of two exciting matches to bring the curtain down on what has been a tremendous season of football in the Conference Premier, and one which has given BT Sport viewers some fantastic entertainment.

But we are not quite finished, of course, with the winners of Sunday's semi-finals heading to Wembley Stadium for the climax of the 2013/14 season - the Skril Premier Promotion Play-Off Final which is also live on BT Sport.

Sunday May 4th: Cambridge United v FC Halifax Town - 1.15pm, ESPN and Gateshead v Grimsby Town - 4.15pm, BT Sport 1

What's made the headlines this week

Coleman leaves Port

Having achieved his aim of keeping Southport in the Skril Premier, manager John Coleman left the club this week. The ex-Accrington Stanley boss is keen to return to League management.

Woking management duo stay

Woking's managerial duo of boss Garry Hill and Steve Thompson have agreed to roll on their contracts for a further two years. Since the pair joined the Cards, the Conference South title, a Surrey Senior Cup win and 12th place in the Skril Premier this season have been achieved.

Skril Premier Promotion Final tickets

Tickets for the Skril Premier Promotion Final on Sunday, 18th May will go on sale via ticket agency 'See Tickets' on Tuesday, 6th May. More information regarding the dedicated phone line and website links for purchasing tickets for each finalist club will be released on May 4th.
