Eastleigh promotion is a holiday treat

By Steve Whitney

The crucial Easter weekend of football produced its usual dose of shocks and surprises as several issues were solved in the Skrill Premier.

Luton Town had, of course, already been crowned champions before the chocolate eggs were opened, but who would join them in the Football League next season via the play-offs became a whole lot clearer.

Cambridge United, Grimsby Town and FC Halifax Town are assured of their places in the semi-finals - with the U's already assured of a home tie - but the one other remaining spot goes into the final game of the season, with Gateshead holding the advantage over a Braintree Town side, whose magnificent efforts in completing their backlog of games may just have caught up on them at the crucial stage.

The Iron would need to beat Grimsby at the Amlin Stadium by three clear goals and hope Gateshead lose at home to Cambridge without scoring!

Over Easter, Dartford joined Tamworth and Hyde FC in leaving the Conference Premier via the relegation trap door, but the fourth and final place is between Chester FC and Hereford United.

former Football League foes Aldershot Town for their crucial 'six-pointer' needing to win and hope Chester don't, with Steve Burr's side holding a what could prove crucial one-goal advantage.

Who will be joining the elite in non-League football's top competition next season also goes to the final Saturday of the season in the Conference North, with AFC Telford United looking to return to the Premier after just a season out, holding a one-point advantage over North Ferriby United, who have only had one campaign in the Conference after winning promotion via the Northern Premier League.

Eastleigh assured their place in the Premier on Good Friday after beating Basingstoke Town, with Richard Hill's having been up amongst the top five for the majority of the season.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Promotion Play-Off Final

A reminder that the Promotion Play-Off Final will be on Sunday, May 18th at Wembley Stadium. The game will also be screened live on BT Sport.

Double joy for Harriers

Kidderminster Harriers have confirmed that Ken Rae is to continue his role as chairman. In a double dose of good news coming out of Aggborough, manager Gary Whild has signed a 12-month rolling contract.

Boro appoint Reid

Nuneaton Town have appointed former Ayr United boss Brian Reid as their new manager. The former Burnley, Glasgow Rangers and Blackpool defender has more recently been in charge of the Philippines under-23 side.

BT Sport's final offering

BT Sport will be showing Chester FC's fight to stay in the Skrill Premier when they face a crucial final home game of the campaign against Salisbury City on Saturday. All games in the Skrill Premier kick-off at 5.30pm.
