Trophy Takes up Centre Stage

By Steve Whitney

This Saturday sees the FA Trophy take centre stage again as nine Vanarama Conference teams battle to make it through to the Fourth Round.

It would have been ten but for AFC Telford United being comprehensively dumped out of the competition by Vanarama Conference North leaders AFC Fylde on Tuesday night.

On the same evening, Kidderminster Harriers moved into the top five after a 1-0 win at the Electrical Services Stadium against struggling Aldershot Town - a result that saw the end of Andy Scott's tenure in charge of the Shots.

He became the second manager to leave this week following the news that Gary Brabin had quit Southport to take up a 'dream job' with boyhood heroes Everton as a coach.

Brabin had certainly made his mark during his short spell back at the Merseyrail Community Stadium, but Port still hover dangerously just above the drop zone.

Tuesday's only other league game saw Dover Athletic improve their play-off credentials after a 2-0 Crabble success against a Wrexham side who suffered back-to-back defeats after their shock home defeat to basement side AFC Telford last Saturday.

The FA Carlsberg Trophy Final 2014 Winners

This weekend sees half-a-dozen league matches taking place, including leaders Barnet hosting managerless Southport, while Alfreton Town and Nuneaton Town face tough home games against Forest Green Rovers and Grimsby Town respectively in their quest to move out of the relegation places.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Brabin Leaves Port

Gary Brabin has resigned as manager of Vanarama Conference club Southport. Brabin has joined Barclays Premier League giants Everton to be part of the coaching set up at Goodison up to under-21 level.

Shots sack Scott

Aldershot Town have relieved manager

Andy Scott and assistant Terry Bullivant of first-team duties for the remainder of their contracts. Skipper Chris Barker and coach Matt Gray have been placed in temporary charge.

Marriott Blow for Cards

Woking suffered a blow when striker Jack Marriott was recalled by his parent club Ipswich Town ahead of his proposed loan to League One side Colchester. Marriott played 25 times in all for the Cards this season in two separate spells and scored 5 times.

Two Join Harriers

Kidderminster boosted their play-off hopes with the loan signing of experienced midfielder Adam Wildig (above) from Shrewsbury and the arrival of striker Danny Wright from Gateshead.
