Bad Week for Bees

By Steve Whitney

It's been a bad week for Vanarama Conference leaders Barnet.

They followed up a 1-1 draw at play-off chasing Woking with a 2-1 midweek defeat at another top five side, Bristol Rovers.

Those five dropped points allowed the chasing pack, and in particular Grimsby Town, to reduce the gap at the top to a still relatively healthy 6 points.

The Mariners recovered from losing at Kidderminster last weekend to beat Woking 3-1 on Tuesday.

However, Macclesfield look to be the form horse and they stretched their unbeaten run to nine games with a 1-0 success against Torquay at the Moss Rose on Tuesday.

In contrast, Liam Daish (right) is finding it very tough at Nuneaton and, despite making several new signings, suffered back-to-back defeats this past week - the last being a 5-0 drubbing at Dover.

Nuneaton and bottom-markers AFC Telford United are in danger of being cast adrift unless they can drastically improve their form quickly.

But it doesn't get any easier for Liam Watson's Telford, who face in-form Grimsby at the New Bucks Head on Saturday, while Boro take on former boss Steve Burr's Chester, who are also in decent nick, at Liberty Way.

But match of the day sees Barnet host Macclesfield at The Hive.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Dunkley Makes Oxford Move

Kidderminster's England C defender Chey Dunkley has moved to League Two Oxford United. The defender will initially join United on loan until January, which will then become a permanent transfer for an undisclosed fee.

Ex-Dragon Joins Harriers

Kidderminster have signed former Wrexham goalkeeper Joslain Mayebi. Cameroon-born Mayebi joined the Red Dragons in 2011 and made eighty appearances for the club.

Busy Daish

Nuneaton boss Liam Daish has been busy this week, bringing in Lithuanian international Simonas Stankevicius and youngster Marcel Barrington on loan from Leicester as well as ex-Coventry striker Courtney Baker-Richardson from Romulus.

Beautyman Steps Up

Welling United's England C midfielder Harry Beautyman has joined League One side Peterborough. The 22-year-old departs Park View Road on loan until January when the switch will become permanent for an undisclosed fee.
