Crucial Easter for Bottom Sides

By Steve Whitney

A busy Easter weekend in the Vanarama Conference may just settle one or two issues.

By 5pm on Monday, both AFC Telford United and Dartford could be heading out of non-League football's top division.

Indeed, if the Bucks don't win at home against Kidderminster Harriers on Saturday, it will be the Conference North for them next season.

Dartford's 1-1 draw with Gateshead on Tuesday night gave them a chink of light in their battle to stay up.

However, they face a long trip to the Jurassic coast on Saturday to face a Torquay United side with little to play for but pride and final placings, and then play host to current leaders Barnet in front of the live BT Sport cameras on Easter Monday lunchtime.

If Alfreton Town pick up positive results at managerless Wrexham on Saturday and at home to promotion-chasing Grimsby Town on Easter Monday, then Darts could be Conference South-bound.

Welling United and Nuneaton Town also face a crucial Easter period as they both attempt to survive in the Vanarama Conference.

Boro have a tough test on Saturday when they travel to The Hive to play the leaders Barnet and then host inconsistent Braintree Town on Easter Monday.

The Wings head into the holiday period with only one win in 14 matches and they travel to Kingfield to take on play-off chasing Woking on Saturday and then play host to another top five contender, Eastleigh, 48 hours later.

BT Sport begin their Easter 'double-header' at the New Lawn on Good Friday at 4.30pm where fifth-placed Forest Green Rovers take on an Aldershot Town outfit still in need of points to avoid going down.

What's made the headlines this week

Number Two Leaves Rovers

Assistant boss Dave Kevan has left Forest Green. The 46-year-old departs The New Lawn having served as assistant to Ady Pennock since his arrival at Forest Green in November 2013. Kevan is set to link up with a club back in the Football League where he has previously been part of the coaching set-ups at Hereford United, Stockport County, Notts County and Cheltenham Town.

Groundshare Extension Agreed
Kidderminster and Conference North outfit Worcester have announced the signing of a further groundshare agreement, enabling City to continue to play their home games at Aggborough next season.

Wilkin & Mills Leave Wrexham

Just 24 hours after losing the FA Trophy Final at Wembley, Kevin Wilkin lost his job as manager of Wrexham. He was followed out of the Racecourse door by his assistant Gary Mills.

Fifty-Year Lease for Chester

The fifty-year lease on the Swansway Chester Stadium has been formally handed over by Cheshire West and Chester Council to Chester FC. The initial lease granted to the club was due to expire next April.
