In-form Bees avoid away day blues

By Steve Whitney

Despite being held to a 1-1 draw on Tuesday night by Braintree, Barnet still lead the Vanarama Conference table by a couple of points.

Martin Allen's men faced two tricky back-to-back away games at Forest Green last Saturday and then at the Amlin Stadium against the Iron.

And obtaining four points from those two away days will probably have pleased the Bees' boss.

FC Halifax show no signs of going away, and they too picked up four points with two away matches.

Braintree were also the Shaymen's opponents last Saturday and the goalless encounter was swiftly followed by ending Alfreton's good recent run by winning 2-0 at the Impact Arena on Tuesday evening.

AFC Telford finally managed to break their duck by edging a seven-goal thriller at the New Bucks Head against Torquay last Saturday, courtesy of an 82nd minute Aaron Farrell effort.

But Liam Watson's side came crashing back to earth when they missed out again at home when Chester inflicted a 2-1 defeat on the Bucks to keep them at the foot of the table.

Liam Daish hasn't had the start he would have wanted as manager of Nuneaton - Tuesday's 1-0 defeat at Woking being back-to-back defeats for the ex-Ebbsfleet favourite after a 2-1 home defeat by Dartford.

Bristol Rovers look to be the most dangerous side amongst the chasing pack at present and they picked up four points from their last two games - beating Southport 1-0 away and sharing a 1-1 draw at Eastleigh.

Darrell Clarke's team have gradually acclimatised themselves to the Conference following relegation, and they have two successive home games against teams in the lower end of the table to come.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Neale resigns

Ian Neale resigned as chief executive officer of Nuneaton Town.

Helen Thompson has taken over as the club's new managing director.

Bees borrow striker

Leaders Barnet have taken 18-year-old striker Alfie Pavey on a month's loan. Young Pavey first came to notice with Maidstone United before being signed by Millwall in May 2013.

Brunt loaned upwards

Bristol Rovers' Ryan Brunt has signed for Sky Bet League Two side York City in a one month emergency loan deal. Brunt joined Rovers from Stoke City in January 2013 in a two-and-a-half-year deal.

Daish releases big defender

New Nuneaton boss Liam Daish looks to shuffle his pack to free up much-needed funds in a bid to bring in his own style of players. His first task was to release big defender Exodus Geohagbon.
