Conference escapes transfer madness

By Steve Whitney

There we all were on Monday - the Football Conference office staff in early and ready for a busy day of registrations and me ready and poised at the keyboard to write about who had gone where and from who.

But it ended up being the quietest final day of the transfer window for Vanarama Conference clubs that anyone can remember!

Dover were by far the busiest as boss Chris Kinnear looks to put a stop to successive defeats and added three loanees, including two from reigning champions Luton.

Wrexham brought fans' favourite Johnny Hunt back from Cambridge United on a 4-month loan deal and also registered more of their Glyndwr academy lads, but otherwise it was feet up as clubs decided to go with what they already had.

We head into Non-League Day with Barnet leading the table but there are four teams below the Bees who remain unbeaten - Woking, Kidderminster, Macclesfield and Forest Green all having won three and drawn three of their six matches.

Alfreton are still without a point but now have manager Nicky Law back on the bench after his six-game ban, while AFC Telford and Welling are also searching for their first victories on 2014/15.

Most clubs are embracing Non-League Day in a variety of ways and it will be fascinating to see if attendances are boosted by the offers being made.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Thumbs-Up for Non-League Day

Football Conference sponsors Vanarama are getting behind Non-League Day in a big way. They are promoting a variety of ways through social media and their 'Thumbs-Up for NLD' to help get more fans through Conference clubs' turnstiles.

Boro lose new signing

Nuneaton Town lost new signing Jordan Cranston after he played just one game. The 21-year-old former Wolves player was signed by Sky Bet League One side Notts County on a short-term deal until January 2014.

Shaymen sign their physio!

FC Halifax made just one deadline signing - their physio Jon Worthington! However, the former Huddersfield defender has bags of experience, turning out for the Terriers more than 200 times.

Maddison take a step up

Gateshead lost highly-rated winger Marcus Maddison to League One side Peterborough. The 20-year-old leaves the International Stadium for a club record fee, and the sizeable six-figure sum is likely to rise due to various additions.
