Tricky Weekend Tests for Leading Pair

By Steve Whitney

Last Saturday's 1-0 win at the International Stadium against Gateshead saw Bristol Rovers head the Vanarama Conference table by two points heading into this weekend's round of matches.

Long-time leaders Barnet returned to form with a 3-1 success at Moss Lane against Altrincham and still possess that vital game in hand over Rovers.

Both have tricky home games against sides chasing play-off places, with Rovers hosting sixth-placed Eastleigh and the Bees welcoming Forest Green Rovers to The Hive (right).

Eastleigh warmed-up for their trip across to the Memorial Stadium with a terrific 4-0 win against another of the title contenders Macclesfield Town in front of the BT Sport cameras last Saturday lunchtime.

Richard Hill's side are the second highest scorers in the league and showed their attacking prowess against the Silkmen in an impressive performance for the live television viewers.

Macclesfield regained their momentum by snatching a 1-0 win on Tuesday night at Braintree Town, for whom this was a fourth successive defeat that has pushed them down into seventeenth spot but still with a healthy nine-point advantage over fourth-bottom

Welling United.

The Wings now find themselves managerless again for the second time in a just over a couple of months after dispensing with the services of Jody Brown earlier this week.

And they are the next to host the BT Sport team on Sunday as they welcome Altrincham in a vital game at Park View Road kicking-off at 1pm.

Another important relegation 'six-pointer' sees Southport take on Nuneaton Town at the Merseyrail Community Stadium.

Port moved three points clear of the drop zone following a vital 1-0 win against FC Halifax Town on Tuesday night.

What's made the headlines this week

Duo Extend Boro Stay

Loanees George Maris and Elliot Whitehouse have both extended their stay at Nuneaton for another month. Barnsley's Maris and Notts County's Whitehouse have both impressed during their first month at Liberty Way.

New Rovers Defender

Forest Green have signed Tom Bender (left) on a deal until the end of the season. The Wales under-21 international has been on the books at Dartford having previously played for Colchester and Millwall.

Experienced Keeper Loaned to Port

Southport have taken veteran keeper Peter Brezovan (above) on a month's loan from Tranmere. The 6'6", 35-year-old Slovakian previously served Swindon, Brighton and Portsmouth.

Welling Sack Brown

Welling sacked Jody Brown (left) as manager. Brown, formerly boss of Heybridge Swifts and Grays, was only appointed just before Christmas following the departure of player boss Jamie Day to take over at Ebbsfleet.
