

Grimsby Up For The Cup

By Steve Whitney

Tuesday night saw Grimsby Town move into second place in the Vanarama Conference table after a 1-0 victory at out-of-form Braintree Town at the Amlin Stadium.

Lenell John-Lewis' 66th minute effort ensured victory for the Mariners and extended the Iron's run without a league win to ten matches.

That was one of only two midweek matches as club prepare for this weekend's big FA Cup First Round ties.

Tuesday's other game saw Lincoln City, who sent manager Gary Simpson on 'gardening leave' 24 hours earlier, go down to a 2-1 Sincil Bank defeat to Altrincham - not a good start for caretaker bosses Chris Moyses and Grant Brown.

The FA Cup draw produced several fascinating ties - and none more so than BT Sports's chosen fixture - the Yorkshire derby between Halifax and League One neighbours Bradford City from 12 noon at The Shay.

Equally enthralling is the encounter between Vanarama Conference leaders Barnet and League Two table-toppers Wycombe, while Grimsby will fancy their chances at home against Michael Appleton's Oxford United side.

The Vanarama Conference is assured of at least one team in the bag for round two as Eastleigh entertain managerless Lincoln at the Silverlake.

Struggling AFC Telford United face a really tricky away tie at Conference South leaders Basingstoke Town, while there is another South v Premier battle in the Kent derby between Bromley and Dartford.

Bristol Rovers may just fancy their chances of causing an upset when they travel to Birkenhead to take on a Tranmere side who have failed to win in 12 games and currently sit second-bottom of League Two.

Chester FC travel to Phil Brown's Southend and Altrincham visit another side with an excellent FA Cup pedigree, Northern Premier Leaguers Blyth Spartans.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Ex-Chelsea Pair Join Dover
Former Chelsea youngsters Ben Sampayo (pictured) and Alistair Gordon have both signed for Dover Athletic.

Sampayo joins from Ryman League Grays, while Gordon was released by Crystal Palace at the end of last season. The Reading-born 17-year-old, who has been with the Shots since the age of 11, has been rewarded for a series of impressive performances this season with promotion to the first-team squad. Simpson on 'Gardening Leave' Gary Simpson has been placed on 'gardening leave' by Lincoln City after a string of indifferent results. Chris Moyses and Grant Brown will take caretaker charge of first-team affairs for the foreseeable future. The 26-year-old joined Rovers at the end of September and has made four starts and one substitute appearance so far. Bees Host Gulls on BT Sport Next Tuesday sees BT Sport live at The Hive for the Vanarama Conference game against Torquay United - 8pm on BT Sport 1HD. Macc Borrow Hogan Macclesfield have taken Liam Hogan on a month's loan from League One high-flyers Fleetwood. The defender joined the Cod Army from FC Halifax after they had gained promotion from the Conference.
