Vanarama Conference Bulletin
Thursday 7th August 2014

The new season is upon us

- but what a summer!

By Steve Whitney

We are delighted to welcome Vanarama as the league's new title sponsor.

And the newly-named Vanarama Conference has endured an unbelievable close season of ups and downs.

Hereford United have gone, now playing their trade two leagues lower in the Southern League Premier.

Salisbury City have gone - although at the time of writing the Whites whereabouts for 2014/15 is uncertain.

Aldershot Town almost went - but in the end came out of Administration after completing their CVA and now Shots fans can look forward to a much brighter future.

Both Dartford and Chester FC began the summer as members of the Conference South and North respectively, only to be reprieved due to the demise of the Bulls and the Whites.

And now we welcome Torquay United back into the Conference 'family' after they won promotion back to the Football League in 2009 and offer a very warm welcome to Bristol Rovers, whose fans must still be shell-shocked after losing their League Two place right at the death.

Clubs such as Cambridge United and Luton Town, who finally made it back to the League at the end of last season, will testify that getting out of the Conference is far from easy, but Rovers have a manager in Darrell Clarke who knows the scene well and looks to have recruited sensibly.

BT Sport will show Bristol Rovers' first ever game as members of the Vanarama Conference on Saturday when they host Grimsby Town at the Memorial Ground with a 12.45 kick-off, and the atmosphere is sure to be electric.

It's been a busy close season on the recruitment front, and whilst Bristol Rovers will be favourites for promotion, Martin Allen's Barnet have made some excellent signings, including striker Charlie MacDonald, who knows all about scoring goals in both the Conference and the League.

But watch out for newly-promoted Eastleigh - a full-time outfit who have made a couple of excellent captures in forwards James Constable and Jack Midson.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Non-League day

Non-League Day returns on Saturday, September 6th. With no Premier League or Championship matches on that day, clubs are invited to come up with unique ways to attract those fans whose usual teams are without fixtures.

Get on ya bike!

Dartford are calling on supporters to get on their bike by hosting Sky Ride. The club have teamed up with Kent County Council and British Cycling for the popular programme of rides, guided by trained British Cycling ride leaders, which the second ride is set to kick off at Princes' Park on Sunday, 10th August starting at 10am.

BT Sport live games

BT Sport will show Bristol Rovers' debut game in the Vanarama Conference on Saturday at home against Grimsby Town (ko 12.45pm) and newly-promoted Eastleigh's first home game against Aldershot Town next Thursday (7.45pm).

Healthy profit

Clubs are often in the news for being financially stricken. However, good news from Chester FC who have revealed a pre-tax profit of £33,000 for the year ending 31st May 2014. Now that is GOOD news!
