A Very Happy Easter For The Top Three

By Steve Whitney

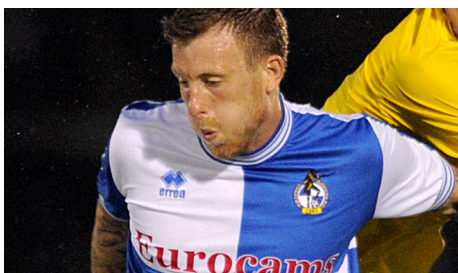

Easter proved a good period for both Vanarama Conference leaders and second-placed Bristol Rovers, although third-placed Grimsby Town may yet rue the two dropped points against Gateshead.

The BT Sport cameras saw a rather nervy Bees victory against a virtually-relegated Dartford side on Easter Monday and Rovers followed that up with a much more comprehensive 3-0 success at Aggborough against mid-table Kidderminster Harriers a couple of hours later.

It's a really exciting climax to the season. With clubs mainly having only three games remaining, only one issue has already been resolved - AFC Telford United's relegation.

This Saturday could see the end for Darts, who could also send Nuneaton Town down if they beat them at Princes Park after Boro were deducted three points for fielding an ineligible player against Welling United in February - presuming they don't appeal of course.

Welling United, Alfreton Town and Southport are the other teams in danger of the drop after Aldershot Town moved clear of the possibility of relegation following a 2-0 win against Torquay United on Monday.

Nicky Law's Reds face an awkward test at the Silverlake Stadium against play-off chasing Eastleigh, Southport have an even tougher task at the Memorial Ground against Bristol Rovers, while the Wings host Kidderminster in a must-win Park View Road encounter.

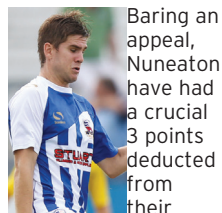

Grimsby, meanwhile, will hope for a slip from the top two and look to beat managerless Wrexham at Blundell Park.

The climax to the North and South divisions look equally as exciting, with Barrow and AFC Fylde fighting for the title in the northern section, while the south sees an even closer contest involving Boreham Wood, Bromley, Basingstoke Town and Havant & Wateville for the automatic slot.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Nuneaton Docked Three Points

Baring an appeal, Nuneaton have had a crucial 3 points deducted from their points tally after being found guilty for fielding an ineligible player against Welling on February 28th.

Hurst is Top Boss

Grimsby's Paul Hurst won the Vanarama Conference Manager of the Month award for March. The Mariners put themselves firmly in the driving seat for automatic promotion, remaining unbeaten in March and picking up a total of 13 points.

Hodgson Coup

The Vanarama Conference announced that the main guest of honour on Sunday, 17th May for their end of season game at Wembley Stadium, which this season is part of the wider 'Vanarama Big Day Out', is England team manager Roy Hodgson.

Sturrock's brief Gulls stint

The experienced Paul Sturrock joined Torquay to help with rebuilding and in planning for the summer recruitment drive. However Sturrock, who formerly managed neighbours Plymouth Argyle, left Plainmoor after just four days to take another post.
