Boss Brabin makes welcome Port return

By Steve Whitney

After the welcome comeback of Liam Daish in the Vanarama Conference with Nuneaton Town recently, another well-known managerial character made a return to the dug-out this week.

Southport dispensed with the services of Martin Foyle after less than six months in charge at the Merseyrail Community Stadium following last Saturday's 5-2 home hammering by Woking.

And by the time Port lined-up to take on Lincoln City at home on Tuesday night, Gary Brabin, who had short spell in charge of the club between April and June 2008 before going on to manage Cambridge United and Luton, was handed the post.

He seemed to make an immediate impact too as Port came back from 3-1 down to earn a point through John Marsden in the 86th minute.

Despite that battling point, Southport remain in third-bottom spot, with AFC Telford's defeat at home by Forest Green and Alfreton losing 2-0 at Gateshead on Tuesday, being below them in the table.

It was an unhappy night for leaders Barnet too as they suffered only their third defeat to date against a Macclesfield side who remain a force on home soil.

Relegated Bristol Rovers and Torquay maintained their top five spots and look dangerous opponents now they've settled into life in the Vanarama Conference.

Rovers' Darrell Clarke earned recognition for his side's good start to the season by winning the Vanarama manager of the month award for September.

FC Halifax seem to be going from strength and, although they have slipped to third in the table with just one point from their last two matches, their Shay home has been selected to host England C's final International Challenge Trophy group fixture against Estonia on November 18th - and it's FREE entry too!

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Watson Goes for the Familiar

AFC Telford boss Liam Watson has signed one of his former Southport players in Andy Parry on loan. Parry left Port for Luton in the summer of 2013, helping the Hatters to win the title last season.

Wright Award for Danny

Gateshead's Danny Wright was announced as September's player of the month in the Vanarama Conference. Wright scored 5 times in September since moving north from Forest Green Rovers.

John Receives Call-Up

Nuneaton's Jorriin John has been called up for international duty by Antigua & Barbuda. Striker John is in their CFU Caribbean Cup Championship squad for games to be played in Trinidad & Tobago this week.

Clarke is Top Boss

Bristol Rovers boss Darrell Clarke was announced as the September manager of the month for the Vanarama Conference. Bristol Rovers had an impressive month, remaining unbeaten in six games.
