Nuneaton boss Reid given the boot

By Steve Whitney

Brian Reid became the first managerial casualty of the 2014/15 Vanarama Conference season when he was sacked by Nuneaton this week.

Reid, 43, took charge at Liberty Way in May following the departure of Kevin Wilkin to Wrexham but Boro won only one of their seven games under his guidance this season.

Former caretaker boss Mark Noon takes temporary charge, along with coaches Nicky Eaden and James Ellis.

Managerless teams are often dangerous opponents, as Forest Green found out to their cost on Tuesday night as Nuneaton won 1-0 under their temporary leadership.

FC Halifax are back on top of the fledgling table after drawing 1-1 at Macclesfield on Tuesday night - a night that also saw a welcome 1-0 win for Bristol Rovers over Wrexham to ease the pressure that was growing on manager Darrell Clarke.

Alfreton, now with manager Nicky Law back in the dug-out after his 6-game stadium ban, managed a 1-1 home draw with Altrincham on Tuesday to finally break their duck and will be hoping experienced new striker Karl Hawley can help them climb the table, but the Reds remain bottom - a point ahead of promoted AFC Telford, who are finding things tough upon their return to the top flight.

Welling have also made a slow start, but their 2-1 success against Braintree on Tuesday will help morale, aided by two new loan signings in Aristide Bassele from AFC Bournemouth and Tobi Sho-Silva, who returns for a second spell with the Wings from Charlton.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Woking Honour Ex-Boss

Ex-Woking boss Geoff Chapple opened a lounge named after him at Kingfield last Saturday. The Geoff Chapple Lounge is in recognition of the fantastic achievements made under his management.

Bees Keeper Wins Player Award

Barnet keeper Graham Stack won the inaugural Vanarama Conference player of the month award for August. It is unusual for a keeper to receive recognition and the veteran ex-Arsenal man was genuinely shocked when receiving the trophy.

Aspin Named Top Boss

The manager of the month gong went to FC Halifax Town's Neil Aspin. The Shaymen have made an impressive start to the season and won five out of six in August, with Aspin just pipping Barnet's Martin Allen to the award.

Wings Borrow Two

Welling took advantage of the loan window opening to take Bournemouth's Aristide Bassele and Charlton forward Tobi Sho-Silva. Sho-Silva returns to Park View Road for a second time, having played 17 times last season.
