Rovers Hope for Spitfires Favour

By Steve Whitney

This weekend sees the top two in the Vanarama Conference travel to face teams firmly in the race for a top five spot.

Leaders Bristol Rovers consolidated their place at the summit with a hard-fought 2-1 success against Eastleigh last Saturday and now it's the turn of second-placed Barnet to take on the Spitfires at the Silverlake Stadium.

Richard Hill's side boosted their play-off hopes with a good 3-1 win at Aggborough against Kidderminster Harriers on Tuesday night and are only a couple of points behind Forest Green Rovers in fifth.

Darrell Clarke's (right) Rovers, meanwhile, make the trip north to take on seventh-placed FC Halifax Town at The Shay.

The Shaymen shared a 1-1 draw at Aldershot Town on Tuesday and will be keen to get back to winning ways and narrow the six-point gap between them and Eastleigh, although FC Halifax have played a game less than the Spitfires.

A 1-0 win for Macclesfield Town at the Moss Rose against bottom-markers AFC Telford United on Tuesday lifted the Silkmen level on points with Barnet and are right in the mix now.

John Askey's side travel to Tyneside to play Gateshead, whose own top five hopes took a blow when they were held to a 1-1 draw by struggling Welling United on Tuesday.

That point brought to an end the Wings dreadful run of eight successive defeats and gives them hope of avoiding the drop.

The managerless Wings travel to a Lincoln City side who ended three defeats in a row with a 2-1 win at Crabble against Dover Athletic last Saturday.

A 'six-pointer' at the foot of the table sees second-bottom Dartford take on twentieth-placed Alfreton Town at Princes Park.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Lines' Rovers Return

Bristol Rovers have re-signed Chris Lines on a loan from League One side Port Vale until the end of the season. The midfielder, who made his Rovers debut in 2006, went on to score 21 goals in 158 League appearances before leaving to join Sheffield Wednesday for a fee of £50,000 in August 2011.

McBurnie Returns

Chester have re-signed young striker Oliver McBurnie on loan from League One side Bradford City for the remainder of the season. The Scottish u-19 international played 4 times, scoring once, in his first loan spell with Chester in January.

Three New Wings at Park View Road

Welling United have added Michael Chambers, Aristide Bassele and Michael McEntegert to their squad. Chambers is on loan from Crystal Palace, Bassele on similar terms from Bournemouth and keeper McEntegert joins from Chalfont St Peter.

Clarke is Top Boss Once More

Bristol Rovers boss Darrell Clarke (above) won the February manager of the month award - his third success so far this season. Rovers had a perfect month, winning all of their five games throughout February, going into top spot for the first time this season.
