Wembley The Stage For A Tense Finale

By Steve Whitney

Sunday's Vanarama Conference Promotion Final at Wembley looks like smashing the previous record crowd figure for the game.

Having two such big clubs as Bristol Rovers and Grimsby Town in the final has guaranteed massive interest from all over the country and worldwide.

In the regular season, runners-up Rovers finished five points clear of third-placed Mariners, but only one goal separated the teams in their two league games.

Rovers' opening game after suffering relegation from the Football League was against Grimsby and was screened live on BT Sport.

It ended up being a none-too-inspiring 0-0 draw.

Darrell Clarke's side then won the fixture at Blundell Park, courtesy of a 67th minute Tom Lockyer effort.

Rovers featured on BT Sport again as they clinched their place in Sunday's final with a 2-0 win at the Memorial Ground against Forest Green Rovers on May 3rd.

A crowd of 10,563 saw Chris Lines and Matty Taylor add to the latter's goal at the New Lawn in the first leg to make it a fairly comfortable 3-0 aggregate victory.

BT Sport also featured the second leg of the Grimsby versus Eastleigh encounter at Blundell Park, in which the Mariners eased to a 3-0 win and a 5-1 overall victory against a Spitfires outfit who can nevertheless be proud of their first season at the top level of non-League football.

Bristol Rovers will start favourites for Sunday's final and will be backed by a huge number of Gas fans.

But the two league matches showed there is little to choose between the teams and another tight game under the arch is anticipated.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Law Stays On

Alfreton, relegated from the Vanarama Conference, have announced that they are sticking with manager Nicky Law. The Reds suffered a first relegation in sixteen years - albeit on goal difference on the last day of the season.

Day In As Assistant

Forest Green Rovers have appointed Jamie Day as the club's new assistant-manager. The 35-year-old joins the club as number two to Ady Pennock having recently come to an end of a spell as player-manager at Ebbsfleet United.

Wembley Double

A non-League football double-header will be piloted at Wembley next season with both the FA Trophy and the FA Vase Finals taking place on Sunday, 22nd May 2016. It will be the first time ever that Wembley Stadium has hosted two FA national competition finals on the same day.

New Alty stars

Altrincham have begun recruiting early having announced the signing of keeper Tim Deasy from Northwich Victoria and midfielder Josh O'Keefe from league rivals Kidderminster. Deasy, 29, signed a dual-registration Conference deal with Alty in March 2014 whilst still playing for Vics.
