Allen's brilliant Bees are buzzing

By Steve Whitney

So, the first week of the new 2014/15 Vanarama Conference is done and dusted and only five teams possess 100 per cent record following the opening two matches.

Martin Allen's (right) Barnet side top the fledgling table with a goal difference of plus seven after impressive wins against reprieved Chester FC (5-0) and then title favourites Bristol Rovers (2-0).

Most pundits tipped the Bees to be there or thereabouts come the end of the season and also expected Alfreton Town to be amongst the top six, but, perhaps suffering from a lack of words of wisdom from manager Nicky Law, currently serving a stadium ban, the Reds have suffered back-to-back defeats.

Bristol Rovers opened the season with a rather uninspiring goalless draw in front of the BT Sport cameras against Grimsby Town, but once they have settled down, most expect Darrell Clarke's side to be contenders.

Last season's Conference Promotion finalists Gateshead, FC Halifax Town, Macclesfield Town and Forest Green Rovers are the others to possess six points from their opening fixtures.

Gary Mills's Tynesiders have strengthened since losing to Cambridge United at Wembley last May and the Shaymen have already shown they can get by without prolific scorer Lee Gregory, while it would be strange if Forest Green's impressive squad under Ady Pennock were not challenging come the end of April.

The Silkmen were relatively quiet during the close season, but John Askey has made some shrewd acquisitions, so it will be interesting to see if they can sustain a promotion push.

The two sides who were promoted via the play-offs - Altrincham and Dover Athletic - find themselves still searching for their first point, as are Southport, who have had a tough opening with defeats at Forest Green and FC Halifax.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

First pic winner

The inaugural winner of the Vanarama Pic of the Month for August 2014 is Matt Bradshaw of cornerflagimages.com who is the club photographer at Chelmsford City FC. A total of 47 action shots were submitted to the Football Conference for possible inclusion on the Conference WebApp.

Reds to host internationals

Alfreton Town have been chosen to host two FA U17 internationals at the Impact Arena. The Reds will stage games between Portugal U17s and Italy U17s on Wednesday, August 27th and also Italy U17s v Czech Republic U17s on Friday, August 29th - and admission to both is FREE.

New deal for Shaymen boss

Neil Aspin signed a new two-year full-time contract this week with FC Halifax Town. His previous contract still had a year to run, but the continued success of the team and a change in his employment led to the extension.

Clarke goes for the familiar

Darrell Clarke, manager of Vanarama Conference new boys Bristol Rovers, has once again delved into his former Salisbury squad to sign keeper Will Puddy. The 26-year-old will have to work extra hard to win over the fans though as he is a former Bristol City player!
