Top clash gets live BT Sport treatment

By Steve Whitney

Saturday sees Vanarama Conference leaders Barnet make the trip north to take on fourth-placed Grimsby Town live in front of the BT Sport cameras.

Martin Allen's haven't played since being hammered 4-1 by Lincoln City on January 4th, so will be keen to increase their advantage at the top of the table which is currently six points.

And second-placed Bristol Rovers will already know the score from Blundell Park when they take the field at Kingfield to play another play-off chaser, Woking.

Third-placed Macclesfield Town are also involved in an important game as they travel to Aggborough to play sixth-placed Kidderminster Harriers, who were beaten at home in the FA Trophy by Altrincham last weekend.

Harriers were one of only three Vanarama Conference teams to exit the Trophy at the Second Round stage - the others being Alfreton Town, who were beaten by league rivals FC Halifax Town, and Forest Green Rovers, who were subject of an 'upset' at Vanarama South outfit Ebbsfleet United.

Both Wrexham and Woking progressed in midweek replays, while AFC Telford United's tie at Vanarama North leaders AFC Fylde was postponed again.

Saturday's fixture list also sees a big game concerning the bottom end of the table as fourth-bottom Alfreton make the trip to Kent to take on Jody Brown's Welling United, who have yet to win under his leadership.

The Wings are currently 19th in the standings and with a healthy nine-point advantage over Nicky Law's Reds.

But Brown knows that gap can soon be narrowed and will be keen to extend it further at Park View Road.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

International Signing

Bristol Rovers have signed former Wales international striker Jermaine Easter following his release by Millwall. Easter has previously played for Hartlepool, Cambridge United, Boston United, Stockport County, Wycombe, Plymouth, Colchester, MK Dons, Swansea City and Crystal Palace.

Experienced Wings

Welling United have made several signings since the opening of the transfer window, with vastly experienced 36-year-old defender Darren Purse being the most well-known. Purse joins from Chesham, but he made over 500 League appearances for the likes of West Brom and Cardiff.

Top Boss

The winner of the Vanarama Conference Manager of the Month award for December was Darrell Clarke of Bristol Rovers. The Gas had an impressive month, recording a total of eleven points in December.

Top Player

The winner of the Vanarama Conference Player of the Month award for December was John Akinde of Barnet. Barnet are currently six points clear at the top and Akinde has had a major part to play in this, scoring 21 goals in the league.
