Bee's Hive raided by Welsh Dragons

By Steve Whitney

There are thoughts amongst pundits that this season may see a very close battle for promotion from the Vanarama Conference.

Luton dominated proceedings for long periods of last term, but early indications are that those pundits might be right.

Martin Allen's Barnet side looked as though they might threaten to steal a march on the pack until being pegged back by Wrexham at The Hive on Tuesday night, while Torquay seem as though they have thrown off the gloom of relegation and now sit second after beating in-form Woking on the same night.

Both the Bees and the Gulls know what it takes to win promotion from the Conference and few would argue against them being in the mix come the end of April.

At the opposite end of the table, Alfreton finally got off the mark last Saturday in beating Southport and then made it back-to-back wins over bottom-markers AFC Telford United on Tuesday - showing the powerful influence of manager Nicky Law, who is now back in the dug-out after his ban.

But a still managerless Nuneaton Town dropped into the bottom four after losing at improving Bristol Rovers on the same evening.

Wrexham's fine win at Barnet lifted Kevin

Wilkin's men up to sixth in the table and their visit to neighbours Chester FC next Monday night is the next live offering from BT Sport (8pm BT Sport 2).

And after Chester beat Southport on Tuesday night, it is set to be a cracker.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Stadium Re-Named

Torquay have agreed a new stadium sponsorship deal with local company Launa Windows. Plainmoor will now be known as 'The Launa Windows Stadium'.

Freak Injury

A freak injury suffered by Lewis Noice, who had to have surgery after suffering a fractured ankle in the build-up to last week's draw at Dartford saw Eastleigh bring Josh Helm back from Swindon on loan.

Pic of the Month

The Vanarama 'Pic of the Month' winner for September has been awarded to Elizabeth (Libby) Clarke from Conference North club Gainsborough Trinity.

Seats for Soldiers

Aldershot will welcome over 300 military personnel to the Electrical Services Stadium on Saturday, 11th October, as The Shots launch the new 'Seats For Soldiers' initiative in conjunction with National Express.
