Young Bees make early Trophy exit

By Steve Whitney

It was the FA Trophy taking centre stage for clubs in the Vanarama Conference this week.

And despite one or two managers not fielding full strength teams, the majority came through unscathed.

One of the exceptions were Aldershot Town, who were dumped out of the competition by Ryman Division One South minnows Burgess Hill and then suffered double cup heartache when losing 4-1 at Rochdale in their FA Cup Second Round replay on Tuesday night.

Bristol Rovers' inaugural Trophy campaign lasted just one game as they were beaten by Vanarama Conference South side Bath City, and then leaders Barnet were hammered 6-2 in their Trophy replay on Tuesday by another Conference South outfit, Concord Rangers, although Martin Allen chose to field an almost under-18 side with his major focus being firmly on promotion.

Allen's side hold a healthy seven-point lead at the top of the table and Saturday sees them begin the busy Christmas and New Year holiday period with a home game with Chester FC, who also suffered FA Cup disappointment on Tuesday after losing their Second Round replay against Barnsley.

Macc go to the Impact Arena to play fourth-bottom Alfreton, who have won their previous two matches.

Bottom-markers AFC Telford United, who saw manager Liam Watson (above) depart this week, host Eastleigh and Welling take on Aldershot at Park View Road without player boss Jamie Day, who departed for Conference South outfit Ebbsfleet towards the end of last week.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Two for Harriers

Kidderminster Harriers have secured the signings of Jamie Spencer and Akwasi Asante. Spencer joins from neighbours Redditch United, while Dutchman Asante (above) was released by Birmingham in the summer.

Forest Green's Appeal Rejected

Forest Green Rovers' appeal against the loss of 3 points for fielding an ineligible player in August against Southport was rejected by the FA. The 3-point deduction stands and the club were also fined £500.

Wings Announce Caretakers

Jamie Turner and Jake Gallagher have taken over as temporary managers at Welling United following the departure of Jamie Day. The 35-year-old left last week to take charge at Vanarama Conference South outfit Ebbsfleet United.

Burr signs Richards

Steve Burr, manager of Vanarama Conference club Chester FC, has confirmed that Rhys Oates had been recalled to Oakwell by parent club Barnsley. However, Burr confirmed that Kane Richards has signed from Northern Premier League Premier Division side Ilkeston FC.
