Shaymen and Rovers lead the way

By Steve Whitney

FC Halifax Town and Forest Green Rovers lead the way in the fledgling Vanarama Conference table following the opening three games of the 2014/15 season.

With no midweek fixtures ahead of a busy Bank Holiday weekend of action, teams have been able to get in a full week of training.

Last Saturday saw the Shaymen maintain their 100 per cent record with a 3-0 home win over Welling United in which Richard Peniket bagged a brace against Jamie Day's side who have yet to taste victory thus far.

Ady Pennock's Rovers side also made it three from three by beating Alfreton Town 2-0 at the New Lawn.

It has been a surprisingly poor start for the Reds, who are the only side yet to pick up a point as manager Nicky Law continues his ban.

However, his assistant Russ O'Neill insists there were plenty of positives from a greatly improved performance against Forest Green and the arrival of Sheffield United striker Joe Ironside on a month's loan should help the beleaguered Reds.

There are seven other teams yet to taste defeat so far in the new campaign, including fancied sides Wrexham and Barnet, while last season's play-off semi-finalists Grimsby Town have drawn all of their opening three matches, but although manager Paul Hurst will be happy to have only conceded once in those three games, he would not be so happy with having only netted once at the opposite end.

Relegated Bristol Rovers continue to find life tough in the Conference, their opening day point in the live BT Sport game against Grimsby being their only one registered to date.

Manager Darrell Clarke will be hoping that winger Dave Martin, signed on a six-month loan from reigning champions Luton Town will provide the ammunition to get Rovers going.

With just over a week to go before the transfer window shuts, Conference clubs have been quiet this week.

Apart from Alfreton bringing in Joe Ironside and Bristol Rovers borrowing Dave Martin, Wrexham have signed former Rotherham player Connor Bell and Chester FC added ex-Stoke defender Ben Heneghan to their squad.

What's made the headlines this week

Kidderminster Harriers are doing their bit for Non-League Day on Saturday, September 6th when they host Gateshead. Harriers will be offering reduced entry to this game of £10 for adults on the terrace with £6 concessions and £14 for stand seats with £9 concessions as the club aim to pack Aggborough. On top of this generous discount the club will also be admitting under-16's to the ground for just £1 with a paying adult and under-5's FREE.

Long-Serving Dunford Steps Down

Geoff Dunford ended a 30-year association with Bristol Rovers when he stood down from the club's Board last week. Dunford was chairman between 2004 and 2007.
