BT Sport Strike Gold!

By Steve Whitney

BT Sport really do seem to have struck gold with the games they have chosen to screen live this season to date.

Friday's thriller between Bristol Rovers and Gateshead certainly kept viewers interested right until the end when Stuart Sinclair popped up with Rovers' late winner to send his side to second spot - albeit only for 24 hours.

Macclesfield's 5-1 drubbing of struggling Alfreton at the Impact Arena on Saturday saw the Silkmen take over second place, but leaders Barnet's comfortable 3-0 win over Chester at The Hive maintained a seven-point gap going into the busy Christmas and New Year period.

Another standout result on Saturday was Welling's 3-1 home success against Aldershot in their first game without Jamie Day, who at the same time took charge of his new side, Ebbsfleet, as they suffered a shock home defeat to Weston.

The Wings have since appointed the relatively-unknown Jody Brown as their new manager.

Brown has been quietly achieving good things lower down the Pyramid with the likes of Heybridge Swifts and Grays Athletic, so it is refreshing to see an up and coming manager being given a chance at a higher level.

Macclesfield Boss John Askey

Boxing Day sees a host of crucial games at either end of the table - Nuneaton v AFC Telford United is a relegation 'six-pointer', while Macclesfield host Grimsby in a crunch to five battle.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Flatt Extends Wrexham Stay

Goalkeeper Jonathan Flatt has extended his loan spell with Wrexham and will remain at the Racecourse until January 4th 2015. The Wolves under-21 stopper has proved a big hit since coming in to cover for the injured Andy Coughlin and Dan Bachmann.

Extra Live Game

BT Sport have announced an extra game that will be screened live in the Vanarama Conference. On Saturday, 17th January 2015, with a kick-off time of 12.45pm, BT Sport will show the match between Grimsby and Barnet from Blundell Park. The programme will commence at 12.15pm on BT Sport2.

Bassele Remains a Wing

Welling United have extended the loan of forward Aristide Bassele from AFC Bournemouth for a further month. The 20-year-old, who enjoyed a spell on loan with the Wings last season, originally linked-up with club in September.

Co-Chairman Steps Down

Long-time supporter Bill Archer has announced that he is to step down as co-chairman of Dartford after a bout of poor health. Archer joined the Board of Directors back in September 2001 to help with the campaign to bring the Dartford Football Club back to the Borough.
