

BT Sport hit gold with derby cracker

By Steve Whitney

Apart from Monday night's derby between Chester and Wrexham, teams in the Vanarama Conference had a rare midweek break from league action, although some were involved in local county cup ties.

Barnet still head the table, and recovered from the previous week's home defeat by Wrexham to inflict a 5-0 drubbing on Altrincham at the weekend, with summer recruit John Akinde helping himself to a 15-minute hat-trick, including two penalties.

Alfreton might only be in 18th spot currently, but they have made a remarkable recovery, and last Saturday's 1-0 win against Nuneaton saw the Reds pick up a tenth point from a possible twelve since manager Nicky Law's return to the dug-out.

That game proved to be the last for Mark Noon in caretaker charge of Boro as they announced the appointment of Liam Daish on Tuesday.

It is a very welcome return to the Conference scene for the ex-Republic of Ireland defender who became such a firm favourite whilst in charge at Ebbsfleet that they named a stand in his honour after his departure last year.

BT Sport really hit gold when they decided to show the derby between Chester and Wrexham at the Swansway Chester Stadium on Monday night.

They brought out the 'big guns' in Michael Owen and Robbie Savage to join the regulars as both have connections with the clubs.

And it was a tremendous advert for the league. There was a great atmosphere inside the stadium and that helped towards a full-blooded derby that had just about everything - including a quite remarkable finale that saw Chester come from 1-0 down to win 2-1, courtesy of literally a last-gasp stoppage time winner from defender Ben Heneghan that gave former England star Owen bragging rights over the ex-Welsh midfielder!

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Noon Leaves Boro

Following the arrival of Liam Daish as the new manager at Nuneaton, long-serving Mark Noon departed Liberty Way as assistant boss. Noon made 300 stars for Boro and made 28 appearances as a substitute.

Shots Players Raise Cash for Youth Café

Aldershot players raised money for The Source Youth Café with a crossbar challenge and then took on members at table tennis, pool, table football, Xbox and board games. The Source meets the needs of hundreds of young people aged between 11 and 25 across Rushmoor.

Keeper Extends Reds Stay

Alfreton have extended the loan of keeper Cameron Dawson from Championship side Sheffield Wednesday. The 19-year-old will remain at the Impact Arena until November 22nd.

Dragons Borrow U's Striker

Wrexham have taken former Braintree and Histon striker Dan Holman on a month's loan from League One side Colchester. Holman joined the U's in the summer after enjoying a successful spell with Braintree in which he scored 24 goals in 69 games.
