Bristol Rovers Take Over Top Spot

By Steve Whitney

Darrell Clarke's Bristol Rovers knocked faltering Barnet off the Vanarama Conference summit for the first time since August when they beat Braintree Town 2-1 at the Memorial Stadium on Tuesday night.

The final fixtures for February sees the new leaders make the long trek north to take on a Gateshead side buoyed by a 2-0 victory over Kidderminster on the same night, while Martin Allen's Bees will look to return from Cheshire with the spoils as they travel to Altrincham.

BT Sport will be hoping that their Saturday lunchtime fare between play-off chasing Eastleigh and third-placed Macclesfield is as entertaining as it looks on paper.

BT Sport have been extremely fortunate with their picks from the Vanarama Conference, although last weekend's dour goalless draw between Nuneaton and Kidderminster was an exception.

At the other end of the table there is a real relegation 'six-pointer' at the New Bucks Head where bottom-marker AFC Telford United - beaten at Grimsby on Tuesday - entertain fourth-bottom Alfreton Town.

Another big game involving the relegation battle sees second-bottom Nuneaton hosting a nineteenth-placed Welling United side who are sitting just two points above the drop zone.

FC Halifax Town will be hoping to get back on the pitch and rekindle their play-off hopes as they travel to Aggborough to play Kidderminster after seeing yet another home game postponed in midweek.

The all-Vanarama Conference FA Trophy semi-final sees Wrexham take a narrow 2-1 lead to Torquay United in the second leg.

What's made the headlines this week

New Keeper for Boro
New Zealand u-21 keeper Max Crocombe has joined Nuneaton on loan. The move follows the decision by Barnsley to recall Christian Dibble to cover a keeper shortage at Oakwell.

Audel Returns to Silkmen
French defender Thierry Audel has re-joined Macclesfield. Audel played 20 times for Macc in the second half of that campaign before signing for League One side Crewe Alexandra eighteen months ago.

Pitt Becomes a Wing
Steve Pitt has left Vanarama Conference South outfit Bishop's Cleeve as general manager to join Jody Brown's coaching team at Vanarama Conference outfit Welling United. Pitt has previous managerial experience with Leiston, Stanway Rovers and Wivenhoe Town.

By Steve Whitney

Stokes Loaned Upwards
Forest Green's Chris Stokes has joined League One side Coventry City on a month's loan deal. The ex-England C and Bolton defender has been training with the Sky Blues for the past couple of weeks.
