Bucks & Boro Face Another 'Six-Pointer'

By Steve Whitney

Leaders Barnet head into the New Year with a seven-point cushion after earning four points from their Christmas fixtures.

They gained three points from the visit to Aldershot Town on Boxing Day and face the Shots again on New Year's Day at The Hive.

And with the visitors having beaten play-off contenders Woking on Sunday, a fascinating encounter is anticipated.

The opening day of 2015 sees the reverse fixtures from Boxing Day, meaning another relegation 'six-pointer' between AFC Telford United and Nuneaton Town at the New Bucks Head.

And if the teams repeat their frantic 4-4 draw, respective managers Steve Kittrick, who has only just taken the helm at Telford after being out of the game since being rather unluckily sacked by Guiseley AFC in September last year, and Liam Daish will be searching for the oxygen bottles!

Another big game in terms of the play-off positions sees Eastleigh make the relatively short trip up to Kingfield to take on Woking.

The sides shared a 2-2 draw on Boxing Day, but the Spitfires followed that up with a stunning 5-1 win at Braintree Town on Sunday, while at the same time the Cards were being beaten at home by Aldershot.

And if Macclesfield Town and Grimsby Town have any ambitions to challenge Barnet for the title, they will have to put a consistent run of victories together.

The pair meet again at Blundell Park with the Mariners having won by the only goal of the game at the Moss Rose on Boxing Day.

But they then went and lost at home to neighbours Lincoln City on Sunday, while the Silkmen were hammered 4-0 by fellow contenders Bristol Rovers.

Rovers are many pundits' choice as the Bees main contenders for the title, and they certainly enjoyed a great Christmas, beating both Torquay United and Macclesfield.

And they face the return fixture with the Gulls at the Memorial Ground knowing a win is essential if they are to keep the pressure on Martin Allen's side.

The game scheduled for New Year's Day between FC Halifax Town and Gateshead at The Shay has been postponed.

The Tynesiders have been given extra time to recover and prepare for their big FA Cup Third Round tie against Premier League side West Bromwich Albion three days later.
