Back to League Action

By Steve Whitney

It's back to league action on Saturday after a week of FA Cup games for Vanarama Conference clubs.

There were few surprises in the Fourth Qualifying Round last Saturday, although Welling United lost their Kent derby at Ryman Premier high-flyers Maidstone United and then Nuneaton Town lost their replay against Conference South side Hemel Hempstead on Tuesday.

But in the majority of Vanarama Conference teams came through unscathed and went into Monday's draw for the First Round Proper which has produced one or two mouthwatering ties, including league leaders Barnet hosting League Two table-toppers Wycombe after the Bees saw off Conference South outfit Chelmsford City in a replay on Tuesday and Braintree at home to League One Chesterfield after the Iron's extra-time replay win against Weymouth on the same night.

This Saturday's attention turns back to the league and there are some standout fixtures.

Bottom-markers AFC Telford United host Bristol Rovers at the New Bucks Head, while Macclesfield will be looking to step into the play-off places when they travel to another struggler, Nuneaton.

Telford are in danger of being cast adrift unless Liam Watson's men can string some results together.

However, Rovers will be looking to get back on track after losing at home to Forest Green on their last league outing, although a morale-boosting 7-1 cup win against Dorchester last weekend will help.

The Silkmen go to Liberty Way looking for a fifth successive unbeaten game in the league, while Liam Daish's charges are looking to reverse two successive away defeats and that cup defeat to the Tudors.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Welch Signs Shots Deal

Jay Welch has signed his first pro contract with Aldershot Town. The Reading-born 17-year-old, who has been with the Shots since the age of 11, has been rewarded for a series of impressive performances this season with promotion to the first-team squad.

Jolley Stay

Newport County have agreed for Christian Jolley to remain with Forest Green on loan for a further month. The 26-year-old joined Rovers at the end of September and has made four starts and one substitute appearance so far.

Foxes Defender Loaned to Dragons

Promising young defender James Pearson has joined Wrexham on a month's loan deal from Barclays Premier League side Leicester.

As well as captaining Leicester's under-21s on a number of occasions this term, the 21-year-old made his senior debut in the Capital One Cup against Shrewsbury earlier this season.

Mariners Chance for New Zealander

New Zealand striker Hamish Watson is currently having a trial with Grimsby Town. The 21-year-old - a strong, robust centre-forward - is a product of the New Zealand Lower Hutt club.
