

Robins Run Finally Comes To An End

By Steve Whitney

Tuesday night saw Forest Green Rovers' title chances in the Vanarama National League receive a massive boost - without playing!

Leaders Cheltenham Town travelled to the Silverlake Stadium to take on an Eastleigh side who hadn't won in eleven games, while Gary Johnson's Robins had gone a club record 22 league games without losing.

However, a 13th minute own goal by defender Cameron Burgess proved to be the only one of the game to leave Rovers with the chance to re-take top spot if they win in Friday's live BT Sport encounter with top five rivals Grimsby Town at the New Lawn.

The biggest talking point in last weekend's round of league matches was the controversial 'goal' at Nethermoor given in Guiseley AFC's favour against Braintree Town.

But a still fuming Iron, put that behind them to move into the top five and fourth spot after hammering another nail into bottom-markers Kidderminster Harriers' relegation coffin with a 2-1 win on Tuesday.

Harriers' slim hopes weren't helped by Torquay United's excellent 2-1 win at Macclesfield Town on the same night.

The Gulls made up for last weekend's shock FA Trophy exit at the hands of Ryman Premier outfit Bognor Regis Town with that success at the Moss Rose, but Dover Athletic, who also suffered at the hands of a lower league side in Evo-Stik Northern Premier Division Nantwich Town, suffered a 2-1 home reverse against a previously out-of-sorts Southport outfit.

On Saturday, Cheltenham travel to struggling Welling United, who lost 2-0 at Bromley on Tuesday night to leave them just a couple of points better off than Harriers.

Fast-approaching Easter is always a crucial time when issues at either end of the table become much clearer, and teams right up to 16th-placed Chester FC cannot sit comfortably yet in the battle to avoid the drop.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Hoban becomes a loan Mariner

Grimsby have announced that striker Pat Hoban has joined on loan from Oxford United until the end of the season. The 24-year old, who has recently spent time on loan at Stevenage FC, was top scorer in the Irish Premier League for two seasons before joining Oxford from Dundalk.

Ex National skipper joins Wings

Former Sierra Leon captain Ibrahim Kargbo has signed for Welling. Kargbo's former clubs are Old Edwardians FC, Feyenoord

Rotterdam, RWD Molenbeek, Sporting Charleroi, Malatyaspor, RWDM Brussels, Willem II and Thamesmead.

Holland moves to Spitfires

Eastleigh have taken young midfielder Tom Holland on loan for the rest of the season from Swansea. Holland, 18, started his career at Bradford and spent time with Leeds before making the move across the Pennines to Manchester City.

Trophy Semi-Final Draw

First Legs - Saturday, 12th March 2016
- Second Legs - Saturday, 19th March 2016
Nantwich Town v FC Halifax Town
Bognor Regis Town v Grimsby Town
