

Robins Look to Take Advantage

By Steve Whitney

Leaders Cheltenham Town and their second-placed neighbours Forest Green Rovers both won 2-0 last Saturday, so it's as you were at the top of the Vanarama National League table, with Gary Johnson's side holding a one-point lead.

The Robins will be hoping to make that into a four-point advantage this weekend when they host Chester FC, while Forest Green have their minds firmly set on attempting to make the Third Round of the Emirates FA Cup when they travel to Oxford United on Sunday.

The league is well represented in the Second Round over the weekend, with Welling United hosting Carlisle, Altrincham travelling to Colchester, Eastleigh playing at Amblecote against Northern Premier side Stourbridge and not forgetting National South outfit Whitehawk, who play at Dagenham & Redbridge. We wish them all the very best of luck.

Back to the league, and although it's a reduced fixture list, there are several vital games, including Dino Maamria's home debut as Southport boss when they host a Macclesfield Town side looking to move into the top five.

Paul Cox will be hoping to follow up the win in his first game in charge of Barrow AFC last Saturday against Woking when they are at home again, this time to struggling Boreham Wood, while Torquay United will be looking towards the safety-mark should they manage to win at Plainmoor against a Wrexham side keen to recover from last weekend's home defeat to the Silkmen.

In fact all of the current bottom four are in action this Saturday, with Kidderminster Harriers hosting Gateshead in Neil Aspin's (pictured) first proper game in charge of the Tynesiders, while his former club, FC Halifax Town, face a big Yorkshire derby at The Shay against Guiseley AFC keen to follow up last weekend's 4-2 win over play-off chasing Dover Athletic.

What's made the headlines this week

Aspin for Gateshead
Gateshead appointed Neil Aspin as their new manager ahead of last weekend's matches. It is a first managerial post for Aspin since leaving FC Halifax in September, the 50-year-old having spent over six years as boss at The Shay.

Chairman Stands Down
Grenville Millington has stepped down as chairman of Chester. Millington played 345 games for Chester City and became the first inductee into the club's Hall of Fame and was ultimately named chairman of the CFU Board after his successful election at last year's City Fans United AGM.

Meikle Leaves Silkmen
Lindon Meikle has left Macclesfield. The former Eastwood and Mansfield winger joined the Silkmen in late September and made his debut in the 3-0 win at Aldershot Town.

Barnes-Homer Stays Longer
Matthew Barnes-Homer is to remain with Kidderminster after extending his loan spell from league rivals Aldershot. The striker will remain at Aggborough until January 23rd.
