

Clubs chase Quarter-final spots

By Steve Whitney

The FA Trophy Third Round takes centre stage this weekend, with nine Vanarama National League sides vying for a place in the quarter-finals.

Three places are assured as league rivals Torquay United host Macclesfield Town, Dover Athletic have Guiseley AFC at Crabble and Chester FC travel to The Shay to take on form side FC Halifax Town.

Three-times Trophy winners Woking will be looking towards another final - they lost in 2006 to Grays Athletic at West Ham - when they welcome National League South outfit Oxford City to Kingfield, while Grimsby Town, runners-up in 2013, hosts City's league rivals Havant & Waterlooville at Blundell Park.

Gateshead also have home advantage as they host National League North play-off hopefuls AFC Fylde - former FA Vase winners in 2008 in their previous guise of Kirkham & Wesham.

Back in the bread and butter of the league, last weekend saw top two Cheltenham Town and Forest Green Rovers both win again and stretched their advantage over third-placed Grimsby to eleven points after the Mariners lost at Gateshead.

Both are on their travels north this Saturday, with Gary Johnson's side trekking to Barrow AFC and Forest Green heading to North Wales to take on Wrexham.

There are also two massive games at the opposite end of the table as Boreham Wood host a Kidderminster Harriers side seemingly doomed now after an 18th defeat in 28 matches last weekend, and third-bottom Welling United welcoming the team immediately above the drop zone, Altrincham, to Park View Road.

Despite new boss Dean Frost being very active ahead of the window shutting, the Wings suffered a 1-0 defeat at Braintree Town in midweek and will be desperate not to let the gap between them and the safety-mark get any bigger.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Late Signing

Forest Green were one of the late movers ahead of the window shutting, bringing in winger Anthony Jeffrey for an undisclosed fee from league rivals Boreham Wood. He was immediately loaned back to the Meadow Park outfit.

Late Wings Trio

Welling were one of the busiest clubs ahead of the window closing and added a new trio on deadline day. Winger Luke Wanadio joined from Staines on a permanent basis, while striker Ade Yussuf and defender Ian Gayle move to Park View Road on loan from Dagenham for the remainder of the season.

O'Connor Leaves

Experienced striker Aaron O'Connor made his loan move from Forest Green to League Two Stevenage a permanent one. The 32-year-old moved to Broadhall Way last month on loan.

Pring Joins City

Cheltenham's teenage left-back Cameron Pring has joined Championship neighbours Bristol City on an 18-month contract. The 18-year-old joined the Robins at the age of 14.
