

Who Will Be The Cup Hero?

By Steve Whitney

Teams in the Vanarama National League are having a well-earned rest this midweek, although many are involved in their respective county cup competitions.

Last weekend's action began with BT Sport showing Cheltenham Town briefly topping the table after a hard-earned 1-0 win at Blundell Park against Grimsby Town, only for their neighbours Forest Green Rovers to re-claim leadership 24 hours later after another tough battle at The New Lawn against Chester FC.

Ady Pennock's side triumphed 2-1 and go into Saturday's Emirates FA Cup First Round tie at former members AFC Wimbledon a point in front of the Robins.

Indeed, there are only a couple of league games on Saturday but they both have significance at either end of the table.

Both Gateshead and Wrexham could go into the top five if they win - and both face teams in the bottom four.

The Tynesiders entertain Southport, who shared a 1-1 draw last weekend with Aldershot Town, while Gary Mills' Dragons make the long trek down to Devon to play Torquay United, who are certainly showing signs of improvement under player boss Kevin Nicholson and go into the game on a run of four unbeaten.

The First Round of the FA Cup is where 'unknowns' suddenly become household names - at least for a while - and as well as Forest Green's tie at the 2011 Promotion Final winners AFC Wimbledon, title-rivals Cheltenham travel up to the north-east to take on League Two Hartlepool in a very winnable tie for Gary Johnson's (above) men, while arguably the tie of the round as far as the National League clubs are concerned sees Macclesfield Town travel to Fratton Park to play the 2007 FA Cup winners Portsmouth in front of what should turn out to be one of the biggest crowds of the round.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Change at The Helm

Kidderminster announced a change of ownership structure with Colin Gordon becoming the club's major shareholder. Rod Brown remains as chairman.

Good Loan Start

Braintree signed midfielder Sammie Szmodics on an initial one month loan from League One side Colchester ahead of Saturday's game against Macclesfield. And he scored the only goal of the game on his debut.

Two For Chester

Chester boss Steve Burr (left) added defender Ben Gordon and midfielder Luke Woodland to his squad. Gordon joins from Colchester, while Woodland was with Bolton.

Iron Man for Imps

Young striker Kyle Wootton has joined Lincoln City on a month's loan from Scunthorpe. He made his debut as a second half sub last weekend against Bromley.
