

Spotlight falls on Spitfires

By Steve Whitney

The spotlight falls on Eastleigh this weekend as the Vanarama National League - and indeed non-League football's - sole representative in the Emirates FA Cup Third Round.

Chris Todd's Spitfires take on Championship strugglers Bolton Wanderers at the Silverlake Stadium.

Despite many pundits fancying Eastleigh's chances of causing an upset, the tie doesn't feature on live TV, which is a shame.

However, everyone connected with the National League family wish them the very best of luck.

While Eastleigh won't be able to progress from fourth place in the table, the other top five teams are all in league action on Saturday.

A weather-hit fixture list last weekend saw leaders Cheltenham Town inactive, allowing Forest Green Rover to pull three points closer to their neighbours after beating Torquay United in the live BT Sport game last Friday night.

However, Grimsby Town's good run stalled a little in drawing at home to Guiseley AFC, while Macclesfield Town sneaked into fifth spot with an excellent 1-0 win at Prenton Park against in-form Tranmere Rovers.

This weekend Cheltenham travel to a Boreham Wood side sitting just outside the drop zone, and Forest Green and Grimsby are also on the road, making the trips to Guiseley and Welling United respectively.

Macclesfield take on in-form FC Halifax Town at the Moss Rose, with the Shaymen looking to maintain their superb run under Jim Harvey.

Another form side are Southport, who have done superbly since Dino Maamria took the helm, and will look to make it seven successive wins when they take to the road to play Bromley.

A win for Port would leave them nearer the top five than the bottom four - an amazing turnaround.

Braintree Town are falling behind with the fixtures due to having so many of their home games called off due to a waterlogged Cressing Road pitch, so will perhaps be happy to be away to Torquay this weekend in the hope of getting a game in.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Two Depart Harriers
Dino Fazlic and Matt Young have both left Kidderminster. Midfielder Fazlic departs after making 6 appearances, while Young goes after playing 9 times for Harriers.

Mohamed Becomes a Spitfire

Experienced striker

Kaid Mohamed has joined Eastleigh from Bath City. The 31-year-old former Forest Green and AFC Wimbledon man is eligible to play for Eastleigh in Saturday's FA Cup tie against Bolton.

Return Mariner
Conor Henderson returned to Crawley after completing his loan spell with Grimsby. However, he was subsequently released by his parent club and swiftly returned to become a permanent Mariner.

New Striker for Robins

Leaders Cheltenham swooped to sign striker Dan Holman from Colchester.

Holman had been on loan with league rivals Woking this season where he has netted 17 times in all competitions.
