

Two-Horse Race to the Wire

By Steve Whitney

Another pivotal week in the Vanarama National League sees the top two Cheltenham Town and Forest Green Rovers separated by four points going into this weekend's round of matches.

Last Saturday saw Forest Green held to a goalless draw at play-off chasing Wrexham, while the leaders earned a crucial 3-1 win to end any lingering hopes Grimsby Town fans may have had of a late surge for the title.

It's a straight two-horse race now with this Saturday seeing both sides on their travels, Gary Johnson's side to relegation-threatened Guiseley AFC and Ady Pennock's team to a Braintree Town outfit, whose play-off hopes took a blow when losing 2-0 at Barrow AFC on Tuesday night.

Who plays at Wembley in the Promotion Final, however, is two from six, with Grimsby, Dover Athletic, who won 2-1 at relegation-haunted Altrincham on Tuesday, Tranmere Rovers, Braintree, Eastleigh and Wrexham.

Gary Mills' Dragons host Chris Kinnear's Dover on Saturday in another big encounter.

Who bows out of non-League football's top competition is no less enthralling.

The bottom two, Kidderminster Harriers and Welling United, don't seem to want to disappear without a fight, while Altrincham, FC Halifax Town - who earned a massive 'six-pointer' win over fellow contenders Boreham Wood on Tuesday - Guiseley, Torquay United and Chester FC are all in the battle.

The latter two met at the Launa Windows Stadium on Tuesday night and the Gulls earned a vital 2-0 win against Steve Burr's (pictured above) side, who are falling fast and seem to be the team out of form at the wrong time.

It was congratulations to Barrow's Paul Cox and Grimsby's Craig Disley who earned the manager and player of the month awards for March announced by sponsors Vanarama last Friday.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Clarke Earns Harriers Deal

Kidderminster confirmed that one of the emerging stars of the Harriers Academy, Ben Clarke, has been signed on an 18-month professional contract. The midfielder penned the deal that began on his 17th birthday.

Smith Appointed Bromley Boss

Bromley announced the appointment of Neil Smith as first-team manager. Smith has agreed a two-year contract with immediate effect following a spell as interim boss.

Moyses to Step Down

Chris Moyeses has announced that he will be stepping down as manager of Lincoln City at the end of the season. Moyeses has found it increasingly difficult running a business as well as managing the Imps.

Cox & Disley Earn March Awards

Barrow's Paul Cox and Grimsby's Craig Disley (pictured) were revealed as the respective manager and player of the month for March last Friday.
