

Shaymen & Mariners look for early leads

By Steve Whitney

It's a big day on Saturday for FC Halifax Town and Grimsby Town as they both do battle to avoid upsets in the semi-finals of the FA Trophy.

The Shaymen, who suffered a disappointing 1-0 defeat at Bromley on Tuesday to be right back in the midst of the relegation battle, travel to Evo-Stik Northern Premier League Premier Division Nantwich Town in the first leg, while the Mariners, who boosted their top five challenge with a 1-0 win against Southport on Tuesday, make the long trip down to Sussex to tackle Ryman Premier Division Bognor Regis Town.

A one-off tie could have been a very tough assignment for both, but one would fancy the teams two levels higher to triumph over two legs.

While Wembley is on the minds of FC Halifax and Grimsby on Saturday, promotion is very much the focus of attention for leaders Cheltenham Town and second-placed Forest Green Rovers.

Both Gary Johnson and Ady Pennock's teams had a midweek rest.

The Robins host mid-table Woking at the World of Smiles Stadium, while Forest Green face a tough test at seventh-placed Gateshead, who boosted their play-off hopes with a best-of-five win at Moss Lane against relegation-threatened Altrincham on Tuesday.

The gap between the top two is still only two points and it looks like it's going to remain tight heading into the crucial Easter period.

The race for the other play-off places is also extremely tight, although the Mariners hold a ten-point lead on sixth-placed Dover Athletic so, barring a severe loss of form, look likely to take one of the places with either Cheltenham or Forest Green.

But who joins them is very open with tenth-placed Lincoln City certainly not out of the running, being six points behind fifth-placed Tranmere Rovers.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Rasulo Returns to Shots

Aldershot have re-signed midfielder Giorgio

Rasulo from Championship side MK Dons for the rest of the season.

The 19-year-old previously made four appearances for The Shots in April 2015.

Wood Bring in Haynes

Boreham Wood have announced the signing of the former Ipswich and Bristol City striker Danny Haynes on a loan deal from National League South leaders Ebbsfleet United until the end of the season.

O's Striker Loaned to Wings

Welling have signed young forward Scott Kashket on a month's loan from League Two side Leyton Orient. This season saw him make his first start for the O's in the Carling Cup against MK Dons in August and he now has fourteen appearances to his name with one goal scored to date.

Iron Sign Spurs Youngster

Braintree have boosted their play-off hopes with the signing of young Tottenham Hotspur striker Ryan Loft on 'work experience'. Loft is a towering striker whose tally of 13 goals made him Spurs' second highest scorer in the Barclays Under-18 Premier League last season.
