

Harriers Off Bottom

By Steve Whitney

Kidderminster Harriers' long tenure at the foot of the Vanarama National League table finally came to an end on Tuesday night when they recorded back-to-back league wins for the first time this season.

Harriers' dented Eastleigh's play-off hopes when securing a 3-2 Aggborough success, with Arthur Gnahoua bagging the all-important third goal.

Colin Gordon's side still have a tremendous amount to do if they to achieve a remarkable recovery and avoid the drop, but wins against Boreham Wood last weekend and then against the Spitfires will considerably lift morale.

Saturday sees Harriers host a Chester side who haven't played since the end of January and have failed to win a league game since December 19th.

At the other end of the table, Cheltenham Town returned to the summit after a 2-1 win at Barrow AFC last weekend, while Forest Green Rovers were grateful for a stoppage time leveller from Brett Williams to earn a 2-2 draw at Wrexham.

The top two hold a very healthy lead over the chasing pack, with third-placed Grimsby Town narrowing that to ten points after Tuesday's 2-1 win at Bromley, who are managerless after the departure of Mark Goldberg last week.

Saturday sees Gary Johnson's Robins host relegation-threatened Welling United, while Forest Green face a tricky trip to FC Halifax Town - another side not to have played much in recent weeks due to the weather.

The Shaymen though have their eyes on Wembley as they have been drawn at home to league rivals Gateshead in the quarter-finals of the FA Trophy if they can overcome Chester in their delayed Third Round tie.

Indeed, the odds on another all-National League final shortened after the draw paired Dover Athletic or Guiseley AFC away to the winners of the all-Northern Premier League tie between Nantwich and Stourbridge, Grimsby hosting three-times winners Woking and Torquay United or Macclesfield Town travelling to giantkillers Bognor Regis Town of the Ryman Premier.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Simpson Joins Barrow

Former Macclesfield and Lincoln boss Gary Simpson has joined Barrow as assistant to Paul Cox. The move follows the exit of coach Alex Meehan as part of the support staff restructuring.

Eastleigh Get Their Man

Eastleigh boosted their play-off hopes with the coup signing of prolific marksman Matty Tubbs. The ex-Dorchester, Salisbury and Crawley striker has joined the Spitfires on loan until the end of the season.

Fazakerley Joins Dover

Dover have strengthened their backroom set-up at Crabble with the appointment of former Welling manager Loui Fazakerley as a coach. The long-serving 31-year-old left Park View Road recently after almost 8 years as a player and manager.

Pennock Takes Top Honour

Forest Green boss Ady Pennock won the January manager of the month award after five straight wins. Title-rivals Cheltenham's striker Danny Wright received another player of the month award after notching 4 goals.
