

Favourites Through to Wembley

By Steve Whitney

The 2015/16 Vanarama National League Promotion Final at Wembley on Sunday will be between Forest Green Rovers and Grimsby Town after they both managed to squeeze past part-time clubs in their respective semi-finals.

With this being the 'year of the underdog' - Leicester City leading the way - some pundits thought that we would have an all-semi-professional final between Braintree Town and Dover Athletic.

After all, Forest Green went into the play-offs having sacked manager Ady Pennock after a period of indifferent results that culminated in losing the title to neighbours Cheltenham Town, having led the way for so long.

And Grimsby had only managed to make sure of a top five finish in the last week or so of the season, having won only three of their last ten games since confirming their place back at Wembley for the FA Trophy Final on May 22nd.

So hopes were high at both Crabble and the Avanti Stadium that upsets could be averted.

And BT Sport brought us all the live drama of the four semi-finals - and both could have gone either way.

However, once Forest Green had gained an all-important lead in the away leg against Dover, it was clear that the Whites would have a mountain to climb to make their first trip to Wembley.

But they almost achieved that climb, holding the Nailsworth outfit to a 1-1 draw at the New Lawn, with two curling efforts from Brett Williams in the first leg and Keanu Marsh-Brown in the second leg, in the end proving the difference for Scott Bartlett's side.

Bartlett has since handed over the managerial baton to the vastly experienced Mark Cooper, but the caretaker will still have the major say on team affairs on Sunday.

Braintree thought they'd done the hard work when they took a 1-0 lead away from Blundell Park from their first leg.

But the Mariners fought back to force extra-time before Omar Bogle won it for them in the 110th minute.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Cooper Appointed
Promotion Finalists Forest Green have appointed Mark Cooper as their new manager for the 2016/17 season. The ex-Tamworth, Kettering, Swindon and Peterborough boss turned down the chance to stay at Notts County to join Rovers.

McCarthy Appointed - Sharps Promoted
Chester announced that caretaker boss Jon McCarthy would be in permanent charge for the forthcoming season. They also revealed that Ian Sharps will be the club's player/assistant-manager.

Edwards Comes 'Home'
Wrexham have announced that they have reached agreement with their former defender Kai Edwards, who will officially re-join following the end of his current contract with Welsh Premier champions Total Network Solutions.

Guiseley Release Eight
Having just survived the drop, Guiseley boss Mark Bower revealed that eight players had been released. Ryan Toulson, Ben Parker, Gavin Rothery, Danny Hall, Liam Dickinson, Nicky Boshell, Oliver Norburn and James Hurst have all left Nethermoor.
