

On the Trophy Trail

By Steve Whitney

Top of the agenda in this week's National League Scene is to congratulate Eastleigh on holding Championship side Bolton Wanderers to a draw at the Silverlake and earn an Emirates FA Cup Third Round replay.

And they have the massive incentive of a home tie in the Fourth Round against another Championship giant, Leeds United if they can pull off a shock at the Macron Stadium next week.

While the Spitfires were enjoying cup football, they slipped down to fifth in the table last Saturday after Dover Athletic's fine 3-2 win at Sincil Bank against Lincoln City saw the leap-frog Eastleigh into fourth spot.

Forest Green Rovers' hopes of pulling back points on leaders Cheltenham Town, who were held to a goalless draw at struggling Boreham Wood, were frustrated by a waterlogged pitch at Guiseley AFC.

Grimsby Town showed they mean business with a resounding 4-0 win at Park View Road against third-bottom Welling United.

However, result of the weekend was undoubtedly Tranmere Rovers' unbelievable comeback win at Barrow AFC.

Trailing 3-1 going into injury-time, Gary Brabin's men somehow managed to score three times before the referee called a halt after 5 minutes of stoppage time!

It made terrific viewing on the BT Sport highlights programme!

It's FA Trophy action for the majority of National League clubs this weekend.

One or two face tricky tests against lower league opposition, with Ryman League Premier leaders Dulwich Hamlet no doubt fancying their chances at their Champion Hill home against Guiseley, while Macclesfield Town face the long trek down to Cornwall to take on National League South side Truro City.

There are three all-National League ties, with Dover hosting in-form Southport, struggling Torquay United taking on Wrexham at the Launa Windows Stadium and Barrow visiting FC Halifax Town, who have turned their season around remarkably under Jim Harvey.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Whitehead Sold

Macclesfield have sold midfielder to League One side Wigan. The Silkmen have received an undisclosed fee and Whitehead has returned to the Moss Rose on loan for the rest of the season.

Lee's Back

Welling have signed Harry Lee on a permanent basis from Leyton Orient.

The popular 20-year-old midfielder has made over twenty appearances for the Wings over two loan spells.

New Gulls Striker

Torquay have signed experienced former England C striker Shaun Harrad from National League North side Worcester. The 31-year-old numbers Notts County, Burton Albion and Cheltenham amongst his other former clubs.

New Iron Keeper

Braintree suffered a blow when Cambridge recalled Will Norris from his loan spell. However, manager Danny Cowley moved swiftly to replace him with Welsh u19 international Michael Crowe on loan from Ipswich.
