

Big Day at Cheltenham

By Steve Whitney

Cheltenham Town could all-but clinch the Vanarama National League title on Saturday if they beat relegation-threatened FC Halifax Town on Saturday at the World of Smiles Stadium.

The Robins' ground could be appropriately named should Gary Johnson's side earn three points as, especially with their far superior goal difference being almost worth another point, the best Ady Pennock's Forest Green Rovers side can do is pull level on points if they won all their games and Cheltenham were to lose all of theirs with a massive goal swing - an unlikely scenario in truth.

The Shaymen, FA Trophy finalists of course, are in desperate need of points themselves, having lost at virtually-doomed Kidderminster Harriers on Tuesday night.

But what is expected to be Cheltenham's biggest crowd of the season to date will be hoping to see their favourites achieve what few have done in the past - bounce straight back, although Bristol Rovers did achieve that, albeit via the Promotion Final last season on that memorable May day at Wembley.

FC Halifax's Trophy final opponents, Grimsby Town, lost third spot this week to Dover Athletic, who are leading the charge for the part-time clubs.

The Mariners were title contenders until recently and are now only four points in front of fifth-placed Tranmere Rovers and sixth-placed Braintree Town, who beat them at Blundell Park on Tuesday night, thanks to a goal from Taylor Miles (pictured) in the 77th minute - just 3 minutes after coming off the bench.

Eastleigh also remained in top five contention after a 3-1 home win over Barrow AFC in midweek.

At the opposite end of the table amazingly, with only three games of the season to go, no-one has actually been relegated yet, although both Kidderminster and Welling United could have their fate sealed this Saturday should they fail to win at home to Barrow or at Chester FC respectively or if the Shaymen pick up a win at Cheltenham.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Burr Goes at Chester
Chester decided to terminate the contract of manager Steve Burr with immediate effect towards the end of last week.

First-team coach Jon McCarthy will be in caretaker charge for the remaining games alongside skipper Ian Sharps..

Trio Commit to Wood
Boreham Wood have announced that they have completed the signings of experienced left-back Danny Woodard, long-serving right-back Ben Nunn and midfield powerhouse Ricky Shakes for next season.

Harriers Re-Call Forward

Kidderminster Harriers have re-called forward Dan Sweeney back from his loan with Evo-Stik Northern Premier League Premier Division side Halesowen Town after scoring 3 goals for the Yeltz.

Stephanie Moore announced as Chief Guest

The National League are delighted that Stephanie Moore, the widow of the legendary England star Bobby Moore and founder of the Bobby Moore Fund is to be the Chief Guest at the 2016 Vanarama National Promotion Final on May 15th at Wembley.
