

Advantage National League Teams

By Steve Whitney

It's very much 'advantage the Vanarama National League' after the first legs of the FA Trophy last weekend saw wins for both Grimsby Town and FC Halifax Town.

Both faced very tricky away ties at lower league Bognor Regis Town and Nantwich Town respectively, but the Mariners take a 1-0 advantage into Saturday's second leg at Blundell Park, while the Shaymen hold a two-goal lead over the Dabbers after a 4-2 success at the Weaver Stadium.

Saturday also sees some very important league action, with leaders Cheltenham Town and second-placed Forest Green Rovers - still separated only by two points after wins against Woking and Gateshead last weekend - travelling to play play-off contenders in Braintree Town and Tranmere Rovers.

The Iron host Gary Johnson's (pictured) Robins having been held to a 0-0 draw by Gateshead on Tuesday, while both Rovers and Forest Green had midweek local cup action.

Lincoln City and Bromley both saw six-game unbeaten runs ended on Tuesday.

Play-off chasing City were beaten 4-1 at Crabble by fourth-placed Dover Athletic, while the Ravens lost 2-0 at another top five contender, Eastleigh.

On the same night, third-placed Grimsby prepared for their Trophy second leg tie by sharing a 2-2 draw at Nethermoor with a Guiseley AFC outfit who are now six points above the drop zone.

And the Shaymen picked up a point from a goalless encounter at fellow strugglers Torquay United.

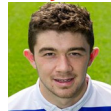

FC Halifax remain two points ahead of the bottom four, while the Gulls are a point adrift of fifth-bottom Boreham Wood.

On Saturday, Aldershot Town travel to third-bottom Altrincham and second-bottom Welling United face top five chasing Gateshead at Park View Road, while basement outfit Kidderminster Harriers look to maintain their slim chances of beating the drop when they travel to Sincil Bank to take on Lincoln.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Long Loaned to Iron

Braintree have taken defender Sean

Long on loan from Championship side Reading until the end of April. Long is recently back from a loan spell with Luton Town, where he made seven league and two FA Cup appearances.

Maamria Leaves Port

Southport confirmed that manager Dino Maamria left his post due to family and travel reasons. He was appointed in November to replace Paul Carden and had a significant impact, being unbeaten in nine of his first ten games, winning seven of them to lift Port out of the relegation places.

Loan Keeper for Gulls

Torquay have completed the signing of American goalkeeper Brendan Moore on a one-month emergency loan from League One outfit Fleetwood. The 23-year-old joins the club after regular custodian Dan Lavercombe was sidelined for around three weeks with a groin injury.

Doughty in to Help Alty

Altrincham's caretaker-manager Neil Tolson confirmed that he had brought in former Robins' defender Matt Doughty to act as his assistant till the end of the season.
