

Shopping or Football?

By Steve Whitney

This weekend is traditionally the worst for attendances at all levels due to the dreaded Christmas shopping! However, there are some fascinating games in the Vanarama National League to tempt you away from the drag around town!

Clubs are trying a variety of things to attract people through the turnstiles, but one thing none of us has any influence on is the weather, and that is really beginning to take effect, with Braintree Town's scheduled FA Trophy tie twice suffering postponements, worrying officials ahead of their home game with Wrexham which is due to be screened live on BT Sport on Friday evening.

We all hope that game does get the referees' nod as it promises to be a cracker with the two teams occupying seventh and sixth places respectively and being level on forty points - Wrexham being one of the division's top scorers, while the Iron having the second best defensive record behind leaders Cheltenham Town.

Gary Johnson's Robins safely came through their Trophy tie against Chelmsford City and face Altrincham at the World of Smiles Stadium on Saturday, while just up the road, second-placed Forest Green Rovers host fourth-bottom Boreham Wood.

One of the games of the day though is at Blundell Park where fifth-placed Grimsby Town take on the team currently third, Dover Athletic, who ousted FA Cup heroes Whitehawk from the Trophy last weekend.

The other side in the top five, Eastleigh, welcome bottom-markers Kidderminster Harriers to the Silverlake Stadium, with the visitors now desperate for points, being ten adrift of fifth-bottom an in-form Southport going into their trip to Hampshire.

Harriers' morale was not helped by their Trophy defeat to Evo-Stik Northern Premier Leaguers Stourbridge last Saturday, but at least Dave Hockaday's team can now concentrate on their attempts to stay up!

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Gulls Release Keeper

Torquay have released keeper Fabian Wiess. Joining the club during the summer following a successful trial spell, Spiess started the campaign as first choice but has been on the bench recently.

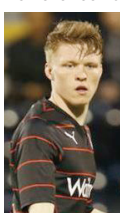

New Deal for Heathcote

Altrincham announced that Sam Heathcote has signed an 18-month contract. The son of former player and manager Graham has made a successful step up from the club's reserve side this season.

Dickie Stays a Robin

Leaders Cheltenham have extended the loan spell of Rob Dickie from Reading until the end of the season.

Dickie celebrated with scoring a hat-trick in the Trophy last weekend.

Imps Sign Free Agent

Lincoln strengthened their squad with the signing of former Kidderminster striker Craig Reid. The ex-Cheltenham, Coventry, Stevenage and Newport man had been playing in the Ryman League for Brentwood.
