

El Glosico Part Two!

By Steve Whitney

With this midweek set aside for FA Cup replays, many teams in the Vanarama National League have a rest ahead of Saturday's fixture list which presents several terrific-looking encounters.

The obvious stand-out fixture pitches league leaders Cheltenham Town with second-placed neighbours Forest Green Rovers at the World of Smile Stadium.

Last weekend saw both win to leave Gary Johnson's Robins a point in front of Ady Pennock's Rovers.

Cheltenham inflicted what turned out to be a mortal blow on Paul Carden, who lost his post as Southport manager following a 4-0 drubbing at the Merseyrail Community Stadium, while Forest Green eased to a 3-1 home win against a Dover Athletic side whose manager Chris Kinnear had just been rewarded with October's manager of the month award.

Third meet fourth on Saturday as the Silverlake Stadium hosts Eastleigh against Grimsby Town, and these two also come into the game in form after beating Guiseley AFC and Welling United respectively last weekend.

After an initial burst of form following Kevin Nicholson's appointment as player-manager of Torquay United, the Gulls go into their home game with Lincoln City four points behind fifth-bottom Boreham Wood and in need of a win.

The Imps on the other hand, are in need of the points to stay in contention for a play-off spot.

Another early season 'six-pointer' sees Welling United host managerless Southport at Park View Road, and although Loui Fazakerley's (pictured) Wings possess a seven-point lead over Port, the visitors do have two games in hand.

One of the most impressive performances last weekend saw Macclesfield Town inflict a 5-2 hammering on out-of-form Woking at Kingfield.

In recent weeks the Cards have slipped from being top five contenders to being in need of points to push away from the opposite end of the table.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

New CEO Appointed

The National League have appointed Michael Tattersall as its new chief executive officer. He joins the National League after almost 12 years at the Football League, where he was Deputy Operations Director.

Carden Departs

Paul Carden has left Southport by mutual consent. Carden was appointed as Port boss in January 2015 following the departure of Gary Brabin. He successfully kept the club in the top flight of non-League football with some crucial wins in the final few months of the 2014/15 season.

New Lions Midfielder

Guiseley signed midfielder Oliver Norburn in time to make his debut against Eastleigh last Saturday. Bolton-born Norburn, 23, lists Leicester City, Bristol Rovers and Plymouth Argyle among his former clubs and has been training with the Lions in recent weeks.

Allinson Returns

Former boss Ian Allinson has returned to Boreham Wood as its new director of football. Allinson recently had to stand down as manager after eight seasons in charge due to their change to training during the day.
