

Four Out of Four for Forest Green

By Steve Whitney

Ady Pennock's Forest Green Rovers side maintained their terrific start to the new 2015/16 season with a hard-fought 1-0 win at newly-promoted Boreham Wood on Tuesday night.

Kurtis Guthrie's goal 13 minutes from time condemned Ian Allinson's side to a third successive defeat following their opening day victory over FC Halifax Town.

Indeed, it has gone from bad to worse for the Shaymen since that loss to Wood as Tuesday's 1-0 defeat at Tranmere Rovers was their fourth on the spin.

Neil Aspin will be hoping his new-look side can finally get off the mark when they host another of the newly-promoted teams, Bromley, on Saturday.

The southern section champions also suffered a third successive defeat on Tuesday evening at home to Braintree Town, for whom it was a first victory under Danny Cowley's leadership.

Aldershot Town, Kidderminster Harriers and Southport are the other sides still searching for that elusive first win.

Kiddy and Port both lost at home on Tuesday to Wrexham and Gateshead respectively, while the Shots earned a second point after sharing a 1-1 home draw with Dover Athletic.

Lincoln City are one of six teams yet to taste defeat thus far, and were involved in a real thriller at Sincil Bank on Tuesday, coming back from being two-down inside 6 minutes against Macclesfield Town to eventually triumph 5-3 with a hat-trick from Liam Hearn - the first of 2015/16.

However, the former Grimsby Town and Alfreton Town favourite trails Gateshead's Ryan Bowman in the overall goalscorers' chart after the summer signing from Torquay United took his tally to five for the season with one of the goals in the Tynesiders' 2-1 win at Southport on Tuesday.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Brodie Lands at Aldershot

Much-travelled striker Richard Brodie has joined Aldershot from Southport on a one-year deal.

The 28-year-old former England C international boasts a fine record at National League level, including 69 goals in 165 games for York, two Conference championship titles and 16 goals last season for the Sandgrounders.

Amazing Response

The 'Crowdfunding' page for Woking's injured striker Scott Rendell's medical, rehab and other costs currently stands at £12,325.

This was effectively contributed in five days which is an incredible effort.

Posh Defender for Harriers

Kidderminster completed the signing of promising left-back Andrew Fox on loan from League One side Peterborough United.

The 22-year-old joined the Posh this past summer after a successful trial, on the back of a four-year spell in Texas where he'd been studying and playing for a University side.

Iron Take Two

Braintree's indifferent start to the new season promoted manager Danny Cowley to enter the loan market. He signed defender Tom Dallison from Brighton and Jordan Chiedozie from Cambridge United and both were influential in the Iron's win on Tuesday.
