

Congratulations Cheltenham!

By Steve Whitney

We head into the penultimate Saturday of the Vanarama National League season with several issues still yet to be settled.

What has already been decided, however, is the destination of the championship, with Cheltenham Town climbing straight back up to the Football League at the first attempt.

Last weekend saw Gary Johnson's side able to celebrate after a Dan Holman brace saw off relegation-threatened FC Halifax Town at the appropriately-named World of Smiles Stadium, while long-time challengers Forest Green Rovers lost at home to Woking.

Just five defeats to date, league top scorers and its best defence mean that the Robins are worthy champions.

Forest Green must now go into the lottery of the play-offs, and Ady Pennock will want to get his team back into some sort of form in the last two games against FC Halifax and then fellow top five contenders Dover Athletic.

Dover, Grimsby Town, Braintree Town, Eastleigh and, as outsiders, Tranmere Rovers are the others battling for the extra games.

This race looks like going right to the wire, with Chris Todd's Spitfires entertaining Gary Brabin's Tranmere on Saturday in a crucial encounter which could end the hopes of one of them.

Wrexham, not quite mathematically out of the equation, host Braintree, who have enjoyed back-to-back wins to take them back into the top five.

Last weekend also signalled the end of the National League tenure for both Kidderminster Harriers and Welling United - at least for a while.

Colin Gordon's interim managerial spell signalled a decent run for Harriers, but they were finally put out of their misery following a goalless draw at Barrow AFC, while the Wings' 4-0 defeat at Chester FC saw them go down and go a long way to seeing the hosts safe.

Altrincham need to win their final two games and hope Boreham Wood and or Guiseley AFC lose theirs to have any hope of avoiding the drop, and the Shaymen are level on points with Wood and two behind Guiseley but have a tough run-in against Forest Green and Macclesfield Town.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Russell Extends Wood Stay

Boreham Wood announced that goalkeeper James Russell has penned a new contract to remain with the club for the 2016/17 season. Russell joined the Wood in the 2012/13 pre-season and now extends his stay for a fifth consecutive season.

Shots Trust Join Board

Following discussions over the last three months, Aldershot Town have offered a seat on the club's Board of Directors to a representative of The Shots Trust. The Shots Trust was formed in 2006 as a democratic supporters group dedicated to giving Aldershot fans a voice and strengthening the links between the club and its community.

Moors Win Promotion

Solihull Moors will be plying their trade at the top level of non-League football next season. Marcus Bignot's team have been consistent all season, losing just 6 games.

Going to the Wire

The race for the National League South title and promotion is going right to the wire, although current leaders Sutton United are firm favourites to join Solihull. Ebbsfleet United, who have led the table for the majority of the season, trail the U's by three points and the leaders possess a far superior goal difference.
