

Robins are Christmas Number One

By Steve Whitney

Cheltenham Town go into Christmas as the Vanarama National League's number one after completing a 1-0 win against struggling Altrincham on Saturday.

They head neighbours Forest Green Rovers by four points after Ady Pennock's men also won by the only goal at home to another of the relegation battlers, Boreham Wood.

Boxing Day should see the fans come out in their droves to see bottom take on top as Kidderminster Harriers host the Robins at Aggborough, while Forest Green make the trip south to play another side desperately seeking points at the wrong end of the table, Torquay United.

Macclesfield Town, on the fringes of the top five, are expecting their best crowd of the season to date when they welcome Tranmere Rovers to the Moss Rose.

Gary Brabin's side go into the game eight points off the play-off race, but most pundits are just waiting for the Prenton Park outfit to catch fire and go on a run.

Real derby encounters are few and far between in the National League, although Aldershot Town versus Woking is always an eagerly awaited fixture, as is Altrincham against Chester FC at Moss Lane.

Lee Sinnott's Robins are four points ahead of the drop zone following Saturday's defeat at Cheltenham, so will be keen to bag some points over the festive season, including the two matches against Chester, who they beat 1-0 in the FA Cup back in October.

Wrexham will be fresh going into their Boxing Day fixture with in-form Southport as their match with Braintree Town, due to be televised live on BT Sport last Friday night, was postponed.

But they will be wary of their visitors, whose 5-3 win against Bromley on Saturday was a third successive victory under new boss Dino Maamria.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

First Signing for Maamria

New Southport boss Dino Maamria made Sam Grimshaw his first signing. The former Manchester City and Altrincham midfielder has more recently been with Ramsbottom and Glossop.

Jeffrey Stays On

Boreham Wood have signed winger Anthony Jeffrey on a deal until the end of the season. However, fans' favourite Graeme Montgomery has made a permanent move out to Hemel Hempstead.

Ex-Latic Joins Silkmen

Macclesfield have signed former Oldham winger Chris Sutherland. He was released by the Latics in January 2015 and joins Macc from Ashton United.

Marwood Blow for Heed

Gateshead suffered a pre-Christmas blow with the news that midfielder James Marwood would be out for the rest of the season. The 25-year-old suffered the injury in the Heed's draw with Altrincham in October.
