

Defining Crucial Easter Period

By Steve Whitney

Congratulations to FC Halifax Town and Grimsby Town for triumphing in their FA Trophy semi-finals last weekend to make it through to non-League football's 'Big Day Out' at Wembley Stadium on May 22nd.

It will be an extra special day for Shaymen fans as it will be their first visit to the National Stadium.

In their previous guise of Halifax Town, they reached the Promotion Final in 2006, but it was held at Leicester City's Walker Stadium.

However, the Mariners will be hoping its second time lucky in the Trophy after losing to Wrexham on penalties in 2013.

While FC Halifax and Grimsby were beating Nantwich Town and Bognor Regis Ton last Saturday, leaders Cheltenham Town were suffering a rare defeat, beaten 1-0 at play-off chasing Braintree Town to a Michael Cheek effort.

Second-placed Forest Green Rovers are just a point behind after a 1-1 draw with sixth-placed Tranmere Rovers.

The busy Easter period can often be season-defining, and with the top two both at home on Good Friday to struggling Boreham Wood and Aldershot Town respectively and then on their travels 48 hours later to Wrexham and Bromley, the top of the table could have a different look to it on Monday night.

The fixture list is fairly evenly split on Friday and Saturday, with BT Sport showing the game between Tranmere Rovers and Lincoln City which has great significance in the top five race and then the relegation encounter between FC Halifax and managerless Altrincham on Saturday.

The Easter period could also go a long way to making it clearer who goes down.

It's looking increasingly like the bottom two, Welling United and Kidderminster Harriers, are doomed, barring some amazing results, so it's going to be a nervy holiday weekend for the fans of the Shaymen, Boreham Wood, Altrincham, Torquay United, Guiseley AFC and Southport, with Steve Burr's Chester FC still in need of a point or two yet.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Bishop Makes First Move

Andy Bishop, interim manager of Southport, has made his first signing, bringing forward Jonathan Margetts on loan from league rivals Tranmere. Margetts has already been on loan at Stockport and Altrincham this term.

White Wood Loan

Boreham Wood have announced that highly-rated striker Harry White has been signed on loan from Barnsley for the remainder of the season. White originally signed for the Tykes from Gloucester for an undisclosed fee, after scoring 9 times in seventeen games in the National League North.

Loan Keeper

Basement side Kidderminster have signed Max O'Leary on loan from Championship side Bristol City until the end of the season. O'Leary has been with City for a decade after joining them as a youngster, rising through their ranks all the way through to the first-team.

Stockton Loan Upwards

Forward Cole Stockton has joined League Two side Morecambe on loan for 28 days from Tranmere. The 22-year-old spent three months on loan with Southport earlier this season and has also made six appearances for Rovers during 2015/16.
