

Crazy week for managerial departures

By Steve Whitney

October is often referred to as the 'sacking month' but November is going out with a plethora of managerial changes in the Vanarama National League.

Already this season we have seen changes at the helm at Kidderminster Harriers, FC Halifax Town, Torquay United, Eastleigh, Boreham Wood and Southport.

And this week Darren Edmondson was sacked by Barrow AFC and replaced by Paul Cox, who had lost his job at Torquay earlier this season, and Malcolm Crosby was dismissed by Gateshead, with skipper Ben Clark and reserve team boss Micky Cummins being placed in caretaker charge.

And Dino Maamria was announced as being Paul Carden's replacement at Southport. Add to that Jason Bristow's departure as manager of Basingstoke Town in the National League South, and it's been a crazy week!

Edmondson's departure came as a bit of a surprise, given that he did a superb job in leading the Bluebirds back into the top flight of non-League football at the end of last season, but leaves on the back of a run of just one win in seven league and cup games.

Cheltenham Town still head the table by a point after last weekend's 'ElGlosico' against second-placed Forest Green Rovers ended all-square for the second time this season.

Saturday sees the Robins head to the EBB Stadium to take on an Aldershot Town outfit beaten 1-0 at home by Wrexham last time out.

Forest Green, meanwhile, host an Altrincham side who have won their last two matches.

BT Sport's Saturday lunchtime offering comes from the Silverlake Stadium where Eastleigh will be looking to get back amongst the play-off places when they take on Dino Maamria's struggling Southport.

Another interesting-looking fixture on Saturday sees a Wrexham side sitting just outside the top five hosting Macclesfield Town, who are just a couple of points behind the Dragons.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Two Loans for Chester

Chester brought in two on-loan players this week. Central defender Alex Whitmore, 20 joins from Burnley, while midfielder Ryan Lloyd, 21, arrives from Port Vale.

Harriers Striker Honoured

Kidderminster striker Gurjit Singh was awarded the Non-League Footballer of the Year at the Asian Football Awards last week. The ex-Tipton Town player won the award for the way he's settled into the higher level.

Williams Returns

Forest Green Rovers have signed striker Brett Williams from Stevenage on loan until the start of January. The ex-Reading player is well-known at National League level after a prolific spell with Aldershot.

New Keeper for Iron

Braintree have taken Wycombe keeper Alex Lynch on a month's loan. Lynch, who starred for the Chairboys in last season's play-offs, had a spell with Wealdstone earlier this season before being re-called early.
