

Ready for the run-in

By Steve Whitney

The end of the busy Easter period signals the final lap towards the end of the 2015/16 season and a make or break period for clubs at either end of the Vanarama National League table.

Leaders Cheltenham Town and second-placed Forest Green Rovers both have five games left to determine who goes straight up into League Two and who has to go into the lottery of the play-offs.

Gary Johnson's Robins have a slightly more comfortable-looking run-in - although no games are easy at this stage of the season - with Ady Pennock's men facing three teams chasing a top five spot and one fighting the drop.

Both had a mixed Easter, with the leaders comfortably beating relegation-threatened Boreham Wood and then losing 2-1 at top five hopefuls Wrexham, while Rovers shared draws with Aldershot Town and Bromley.

Grimsby Town's hopes of automatic promotion aren't mathematically over after losing to Macclesfield Town on Easter Monday, but it would take a massive loss of form from the top two to allow the Mariners in, assuming they won their remaining eight games - starting with the Friday live BT Sport encounter with Cheltenham.

Who else joins in the play-off battle at the end of the month is still interesting at least six other clubs down to Gateshead in ninth, although Tranmere Rovers look to be hitting form at just the right time.

Credit also goes to part-time teams Braintree Town and Dover Athletic, who maintained their top five challenge over the holiday period.

Who stays at the top level of non-League football looks to be heading for an exciting and nervy finale, probably involving 18th-placed Southport downwards.

Basement side Kidderminster Harriers and second-bottom Welling United look doomed though, despite the Wings enjoying a good Easter with a draw at Eastleigh and a 2-1 home win over Woking.

What's made the headlines this week
