

New Year's Day Rovers Chance

By Steve Whitney

Second-placed Forest Green Rovers have the opportunity to put pressure on leaders Cheltenham Town when they host Torquay United at the New Lawn in front of the live BT Sport cameras on New Year's Day.

The Gulls, beaten by Cheltenham on Bank Holiday Monday, will be looking to do a holiday 'double' over Ady Pennock's side, having shocked them 4-1 at the Launa Windows Stadium on Boxing Day.

The Robins, along with the rest of the division, are in league action 24 hours later and host Braintree Town at the World of Smiles Stadium.

Last Monday's fixtures produced one or two surprises, with the top two able to stretch their advantage over the chasing pack after both Eastleigh and Dover Athletic dropped points, leaving Grimsby Town to leap-frog them into third spot, nine points adrift of then Robins, after the Mariners won their derby against ten-man Lincoln City in front of a terrific crowd of 7,650 at Blundell Park.

Another healthy attendance of 5,414 saw resurgent Tranmere Rovers edge out Altrincham 1-0 at Prenton Park, courtesy of a James Norwood effort, to move into top five contention and look dangerous, as do Macclesfield Town, who won the derby at Chester FC 2-0 to move into sixth spot, two points behind Dover.

It's looking gloomy for Kidderminster Harriers, however, as they came through a cruel holiday period when they took on Eastleigh, Cheltenham and then Forest Green without picking up a point - and face Gary Johnson's leaders again on Saturday.

Dave Hockaday's return to the New Lawn ended with a 3-0 defeat to leave his side 12 points adrift of Altrincham in fifth-bottom spot and almost needing snookers already to avoid dropping into National League North for the first time.

What's made the headlines this week

By Steve Whitney

Rovers Want Williams to Stay
Forest Green are keen to extend Brett Williams' loan stay from Stevenage. The striker got off the mark for Rovers in his first start in the 3-0 win over Kidderminster on Monday having initially joined in November but his loan is due to end after the New Year's Day clash against Torquay.

Lavercombe's Off
 Torquay goalkeeper Dan Lavercombe is set to sign for League One side Wigan Athletic when the January transfer window opens. The 19-year-old will join the Latics for an undisclosed fee, but be loaned back to Torquay for the remainder of this season.

Reffell Leaves Harriers
Kidderminster confirmed that they have parted company with winger Keyon Reffell. Reffell joined Harriers twelve months ago and made a dozen appearances at the back end of last season. This season he's spent time on loan at Northern Premier Division side Halesowen Town.

McNulty Makes Permanent Move
Tranmere Rovers have agreed a deal to sign 32-year-old Steve McNulty from League Two side Luton Town on a contract which will expire at the end of the 2016/17 season. The commanding central defender has been on loan at Prenton Park since the middle of October, making a dozen appearances for the club.
