Premier

HAVING discussed and dismissed a possible merger this week, Canvey Island's two clubs showed they could do perfectly well by themselves in two dramatic Ryman Premier matches yesterday (Saturday).

Concord effectively ended Lowestoft's title chances by staging a thrilling late comeback to beat the Trawlerboys 3-2 at Thames Road.

Lowestoft took the lead with a Scott Mitchell free-kick in the 14th minutes and seemed to be cruising when Chris Henderson added another two minutes after the interval.

The game turned in the 74th minute when visiting skipper Greg Crane was sent off for conceding a penalty which Harry Elmes converted. Elmes then equalised in the 81st minute and Sherwin Stanley fired the winner with three minutes left to keep the Beachboys well in the play-off hunt.

Lowestoft will surely now have to settle for the play-offs themselves, having fallen ten points behind leaders Billericay though they do have a game in hand.

Canvey themselves maintained their play-off hopes, winning 4-3 at Harrow despite falling behind three times, and dumping the losers into the bottom four.

Steve Ferguson opened the scoring on 14 minutes but Jason Hallett's header squared it eight minutes later. It stayed that way until ten minutes after the interval, when Danny Buckle put Harrow in front again, and once more Hallett replied swiftly.

Ferguson got his second in the 69th minute and it looked as if it might be enough to keep Harrow out of the relegation places. But Rob King made it 3-3 with an 84th-minute penalty and Steve Sheehan headed the winner.

Billericay remained four points clear at the top with a well-deserved 2-0 victory at Kingstonian, dealing a severe blow to their hosts' play-off bid.

Glenn Poole opened the scoring with a penalty on the half-hour and Courtney White made sure in the 63rd minute.

Hornchurch, four points adrift, stayed in the hunt with a narrow 1-0 home victory over Met Police. Martin Tuohy's 44th-minute penalty, after Met keeper Jamie Butler felled Lewis Smith, settled the outcome. Tuohy is now the league's top scorer with 25 Premier goals.

Referee Graeme Ions is apparently no fan of the Smiths. He booked the Met's Ty and Eddie as well as Lewis in the space of 90 seconds early in the second half, then handed Eddie a second yellow in the 61st minute. But the ten men could have snatched a point, with Mu Maan missing their best chance.

Wealdstone, 12th in the table, still have play-off hopes thanks to games in hand but they suffered a setback when a last-gasp own goal by Alan Massey meant that they had to settle for a 1-1 draw at fourth-placed Bury.

Chris O'Leary's fierce strike gave Stones an early lead but Richard Jolly, of all people, missed two simple chances to double it and Bury were able to get off the hook.

Cray reclaimed fifth place thanks to a Tommy Whitnell double which earned them a 2-1 win at East Thurrock, for whom Sam Higgins struck after seven minutes, his 30th league and cup goal of the season.

Whitnell's penalty levelled matters midway through the first half and, after Higgins had a penalty of his own saved by Andy Walker, it was Whitnell who headed the winner in the 70th minute. Sam Collins was twice denied a late equaliser, first by a post and then by Danny Young's goalline clearance.

Lewes scored three times in the first six minutes of the second half of their 3-2 home win over Hendon, a result which left both clubs a point behind Cray, who have a game in hand.

Belal Aite-Ouakrim gave Hendon a 15th-minute lead but their defence, usually so formidable on the road, was swept aside after the break by strikes from Chris Breach, Nathan Crabb and Paul Booth.

More might have followed, but the last word went to Hendon's Scott Cousins in added time.

Leatherhead moved out of the relegation places with a 2-0 home win over Aveley. The goals came in the last nine minutes of the first half from the old firm of Tommy Hutchings and Greg Andrews.

It was the first time this season that both men had scored in the same league match, having shared 58 Division One South goals last time around.

The Tanners moved ahead of Harrow on goal difference and are within three points of Hastings, though they have played one more game than both their rivals.

Relegation is all but certain for Aveley, as it is for Tooting who were beaten 4-2 at Wingate.

Murat Karagul put the hosts ahead after six minutes but, despite their total domination, they found themselves back on level terms when Charlie Stimson scored on the half-hour, Tooting's first goal for seven games.

Leon Smith restored Wingate's lead before half-time and two free-kicks by Tony Burke settled the issue before Carl Wilson-Denis provided a late consolation with the goal of the game, a spectacular overhead kick.

Carshalton eased themselves clear of the relegation battle and left Hastings very much in it with a 2-0 victory over the Sussex club at Colston Avenue. The visitors had a goal disallowed before going down to a Paul Vines double in the 69th and 78th minutes. The Robins had Laurent Hamici sent off in the closing stages.

Bottom club Horsham suffered their 28th defeat of the season, 2-1 at Margate. Dean Hill opened the scoring on 34 minutes and Tom Bradbrook added another on the hour. Kery Kedze immediately replied but Hornets could do no more.

North

REDBRIDGE ended Leiston's ten-match Ryman North winning streak with a 1-1 draw in Suffolk yesterday (Saturday), but Leiston still took a step closer to the title.

Danny Smy gave Leiston a good start, scoring after eight minutes, but they were unable to build on their lead and Joe Gardner's reply midway through the second half gave the Motormen deserved reward.

Leiston, though, moved eight points clear with five games left as Enfield Town crashed to a 3-0 home defeat against Harlow, their first defeat at their new stadium.

To make matters worse, Harlow were reduced to ten men as early as the 23rd minute when Jeff Hammond was given his marching orders.

Hawks shook off the blow and took a 2-0 lead by half-time with a scrambled effort by Luke Marshall and a Dave Cowley free-kick. Bertie Brayley's solo effort in the 67th minute made quite sure.

Harlow remained sixth, two points behind Tilbury who maintained their play-off spot with a 2-0 win at Heybridge. Emiel Aiken gave them the lead on the hour, snapping up the rebound after Alex Read's penalty was saved, and Tom Wraight added the second.

Grays stayed three points ahead of Dockers with a vital 2-1 victory at Sudbury. Had the hosts won they would have drawn level with Grays, but defeat dropped the Suffolk outfit to seventh.

Harry Agombar put in-form Grays ahead after only three minutes only for James Baker to reply in the 11th minute. The dismissal of Sudbury's James Smith just before half-time tipped the scales and Bradley Thomas headed the winner in the 66th minute.

Third-placed Needham stayed four points ahead of Grays and moved within four points of Enfield with a lone-goal victory at Great Wakering. Bradley Barber did the trick with a long-range shot in the 65th minute and a post denied Julain Okai a last-gasp equaliser.

So Wakering stay in the relegation places, two points behind Ilford who held out for 54 minutes at Chatham before going down 2-0. Lee Hales broke the deadlock and Ilford had Johnathan Glowacki sent off before Garry Tilley doubled the score with 20 minutes left.

It looks grim for bottom club Ware, still six points adrift of safety with games running out after their 3-1 home defeat by Maldon. The scoresheet was blank after 70 minutes but Ware's troubles certainly did not come singly as they found themselves 3-0 down five minutes later.

Junior Luke broke the deadlock and Sos Yao added a quickfire double. Lewis Rolfe's free-kick gave Ware some late consolation as their survival hopes took another knock.

Darren Blewitt gave Brentwood a fifth-minute lead at home to Soham, who replied through Dubi Ogbonna moments before half-time only for Steve Butterworth to restore Brentwood's advantage immediately after the break.

That was enough to give Brentwood a 2-1 win but results elsewhere mean that their play-off hopes are now very slim while Soham look almost safe from the drop.

Like Harlow, Waltham Forest overcame an early dismissal to take all three points. They recovered from the 17th-minute departure of Adrian Clifton to beat Cheshunt 2-1.

Inaki Ordonez's free-kick gave them the lead right on half-time and Manu Dagher made it 2-0 on the hour, Andrew West replied two minutes later.

There was also an early exit at Potters Bar but in this case it was due to an injury to home keeper Ricky Burbridge.

Theo Fairweather-Johnson had already given Thamesmead a seventh-minute lead and he beat stand-in Denis Paratusic, an outfield player, in the last minute of the first half. Jack Hopkins completed Thamesmead's 3-0 win with 20 minutes left.

Kurt Smith scored twice in the first 16 minutes for Romford but visiting Waltham Abbey responded with goals from Adam Bolle and Tom Bruno in added time at the end of the first half. It finished 2-2 after an uneventful second period.

South

DULWICH are back on top of the Ryman South table after Bognor were held to a 3-3 draw in a thrilling game at Crawley Down yesterday (Saturday).

It looked simple enough for the Rocks as Terry Dodd and Ben Johnson netted in the space of five minutes midway through the first half.

But the Anvils have made a habit of stepping up a gear in the second half of home games and they certainly did so on this occasion.

Luke Blewden halved the deficit ten minutes after the restart, Tom Burton made it 2-2 in the 70th minute and Fraser Logan put the hosts ahead five minutes later.

Bognor recovered to snatch a potentially crucial draw deep into added time through Johnson and they are two points behind the new leaders with a game in hand.

Dulwich, meanwhile, took a 12th-minute lead at Whitstable with a Kevin James penalty and Ishmail Kamara added another in the 34th minute. They had a late alarm when Marc Cumberbatch headed home for the Oystermen with nine minutes left but Dulwich led on to win 2-1 and take over pole position.

Third-placed Whitehawk are five points adrift, though they also have a game in hand, after being held to a 1-1 home draw by Godalming. Jerahl Hughes gave Hawks the lead after 28 minutes and Ryan Lake headed the equaliser ten minutes after the break.

G's, who are three points short of the play-off places, might have won it but for two fine late saves by Chris Winterton.

The most important game of the afternoon was at Worthing and it was visiting Folkestone who won it to maintain fourth place and move three points clear of their hosts.

The first half was a tale of two goalkeepers. Jack Delo saved a seventh-minute penalty by Worthing's Paul Kennett and, 15 minutes later, Alan Mansfield denied the visitors the lead by stopping James Everitt's spot-kick.

Roland Edge found the net after an hour and that was enough to give Folkestone a precious 1-0 win, with the late dismissal of Jamie Brotherton making Worthing's afternoon even worse.

Goal difference keeps Rebels in fifth place ahead of Maidstone, who have played one game more. Walton & Hersham have shown improved form lately but they had no answer to the visiting Stones, who stormed to a 4-1 win.

Baff Addae made the breakthrough with a penalty three minutes before half-time and Sam Bewick scored the second in the first minute of the second half.

Shaun Welford made it 3-0 just after the hour and, although Graeme Purdy pulled one back with a penalty eight minutes from time, Stones had the last word when Alax Waugh converted the game's third spot-kick.

Chipstead thumped Burgess Hill 5-1 to stay on the fringe of the play-off battle, five points behind Worthing with five games left.

Fabian Batchelor started the rout in the very first minute and Matt York added the second on 21 minutes. Elliot Bent replied on the half-hour but Luke Coleman quickly restored the two-goal margin.

Batchelor fired home from long range in the 56th minute and Rob Watkins headed home a corner to complete the scoring with a quarter of the game still left.

Hillians are now only three points above bottom club Whyteleafe, who have a much better goal difference, and it might have been closer still as the sides await their all-important clash at Burgess Hill on Easter Saturday.

Chris Sessegnon gave Leafe a 35th-minute lead and they should have been out of reach long before David Botterill salvaged a 1-1 draw for visiting Faversham with 13 minutes left.

The pick of the other matches was probably at Corinthian-Casuals, where the home side beat Ramsgate 3-2. David Ocquaye's 32nd-minute opener for Casuals was answered four minutes later by Warren Schulz, with a penalty, and Rams went ahead through Ben Taylor in the 59th minute.

Within eight minutes they were behind to stay, however, as Danny Green equalised and Matt Ellis curled in a free-kick.

It was the same scoreline at Hythe, where four goals came in nine minutes either side of the half-hour mark. Brendon Cass put Hythe ahead, Danny Curd replied, Nick Reeves headed Hythe's second and Matt Geard made it 2-2 by blocking a kick by keeper Kieron Mann and watching the rebound sail into the net.

There was no further scoring until the 77th minute, when Craig Thompson's header gave Hythe all three points.

Merstham scored all three goals in their 2-1 win at Sittingbourne. Andre McCollin put them ahead on nine minutes and added a second just before half-time.

Rob Carter's own goal provided a 67th-minute reply for the Brickies.

Bags of great value

The image shows a woman with dark hair and a wide-eyed, open-mouthed expression of surprise or excitement. She is holding a large, white, crinkled plastic bag that is overflowing with various stationery items. The items visible include a box of 'Refill paper', several colorful pens and pencils, a ruler, and other small stationery products. The bag has the 'Ryman' logo in red and 'stationery' in black script. Below the logo, the website 'www.ryman.co.uk' is printed. The background is a solid red color. The overall composition suggests a 'great value' offer.
