

Corinthian 2 Dartford 1 - Kent Youth League 14/10/07

This game was always going to be tight given that the winners were going to go 2 points clear at the top of the table. The match was full of attacking and great technical play by both sides but it was Corinthian that took the lead through a well struck shot from 25yds. Danny Crouch replied for Dartford almost instantly and despite chances for both sides the half finished 1-1. In the 2nd half, Dartford dominated the game with Luke White in particular forcing a good save from the Corinthian goalkeeper. It looked for all the world that Dartford were going to get a deserved winner, but on a rare attack into the Dartford box, with 3 minutes to go, the otherwise faultless Ashley Issuree was adjudged to have fouled the Corinthian forward. The penalty was scored and we ended up from nothing from a game when we deserved to win. Such is football that you don't always get what you deserve and if you don't take your chances while on top, good teams will make you pay.
