In a month when League fixtures in the Premier Division have been much reduced through FA Cup and Trophy matches, plus County Cup competitions, there are six goalscorers with three goals each at the end of November. As a result, the award has been held over and two awards will be presented in respect of the months of November and December.

The award for the "Team Performances of the Month" recognises a particularly noteworthy performance by a Club during the month from any of its first team matches in all competitions played.

There have been several outstanding performances from our clubs during November, in a month which has one again been dominated by FA Cup and Trophy matches. Horsham Football Club have won the "Performance of the Month" award for the Premier Division. Following their comprehensive 4-1 victory away at home to Conference South club Maidenhead United to become the first Ryman Football League club to reach the Second Round Proper of the FA Cup, on the last day of the month they then improved on that performance with a 1-1 home draw against Swansea City to earn not only a replay, but an entry into Sunday's Third Round FA Cup draw alongside the likes of Arsenal, Chelsea and Manchester United.

Division One North Witham Town Football Club receive the November Team Performance Award for the month for their thoroughly deserved and convincing 3-2 victory against FA Cup heroes Horsham in the FA Trophy, at a time when Horsham had been beating everybody else in their sights.

Horsham YMCA Football Club were in bottom place in Division One South when they entertained Premier Division club Folkestone Invicta in the Second Round of the Isthmian league Cup competition. And they looked to have started turning around their season as they won the match 4-3 after extra time to proceed into the next round, winning their club the November Team Performance Award for Division One South in November.

WEEKEND REVIEW

For Horsham Football Club, their FA Cup dream goes on, but for Staines Town the journey came to an end on Saturday afternoon against a highly motivated and good Peterborough United team.

Played in front of the Sky TV cameras and under very heavy rain on Friday evening, a home team penalty just six minutes from time converted by Horsham's Lewis Taylor gave the Ryman League Premier Division club a 1-1 draw and a replay in South Wales on Tuesday, 11th December. The reward for a replay win will be a Third Round tie at home to Havant & Waterlooville in January.

Staines Town performed with credit both on and off the field, but watched by Sir Alex Ferguson and Sir Trevor Brooking, they were beaten 5-0 by a very fit and fast Posh side under the guidance of manager Darren Ferguson. Whilst naturally disappointed by the result, the team performed with much credit, having made many friends during their FA Cup journey.

Both Clubs have much to be proud about, having portrayed themselves and the Ryman Football League with much credit in the national glare of football publicity.

Premier Division

Chelmsford City won the big match in the Ryman Football League Premier Division, when Kezie Ibe scored the only goal of the game just nine minutes from time to beat their main promotion challengers AFC Wimbledon in Surrey, also gaining revenge for their 4-0 FA Trophy defeat earlier in the season. The match was watched by the season's best attendance in the Ryman League this season of 3,124.

However Hendon still remain in second place just one point behind the Clarets and eleven points clear of third placed Ramsgate, following a good 4-0 win at Folkestone Invicta. Ramsgate lost 2-0 at Billericay Town, the Essex club hauling themselves out of the relegation zone in the process.

Margate, 2-1 winners at home to AFC Hornchurch, and Boreham Wood, surprise losers at home 0-2 against Wealdstone, occupy the final two play-off positions, with AFC Wimbledon's defeat dropping the Club to sixth place, although they have games in hand over the clubs above them.

Staines Town and Horsham sit in seventh and eighth places, but with both clubs having only played 13 games each, they have games in hand to move comfortably into the play-off positions.

Tonbridge Angels and East Thurrock shared the points without scoring a goal, whilst Harrow Borough and Heybridge Swifts recorded valuable home victories against Hastings United (1-0) and Carshalton Athletic (3-0) respectively, leaving the two defeated clubs to drop into the relegation places.

Going in an upwards direction are the much improved Ashford Town (Middx), 3-0 winners at basement club Leyton.

Division One North

Division One North leaders Dartford made it thirteen goals in two home games, as the convincingly beat close rivals Enfield Town 6-1 at Princes Park watched by a crowd of 1,004. The win keeps the Kent club three points clear of Edgware Town, held to a 1-1 draw at Great Wakering Rovers.

Maldon Town moved up to a season's highest third place with a 3-0 win at Ilford, just ahead of Suffolk rivals AFC Sudbury and Bury Town, both held to a draw on Saturday, in fourth and fifth places. AFC Sudbury were held 1-1 at home to Ware, whilst Bury returned with a point from a 2-2 draw at Tilbury.

Arlesey Town drew 2-2 at home with Waltham Forest, where the visitors opening goal was scored by Forest goalkeeper Jason Willis, as his long clearance bounced over Arlesey Town's keeper Howard to go into the net. The match was watched by Terry Black, recently appointed Arlesey Town Chairman following his departure as Chairman of Waltham Forest recently, whilst the home team was managed by Danny Honeyball, until a week ago manager of Waltham Forest.

Division One South

Leaders Dover Athletic lost top spot as their match at Walton Casuals was one of two games to be hit by the weather, the other match being between Ashford Town and Walton & Hersham.

Tooting & Mitcham United took the opportunity to return to the top of the table with a comfortable 4-1 home win against Eastbourne Town, whilst Cray Wanderers consolidated their third place with a win by a similar scoreline against Sittingbourne.

Fifth placed Worthing closed the gap on the club above them, Kingstonian, as the two met in difficult conditions at Woodside Road, Worthing winning 2-0 to go just three behind the Surrey Club.

Metropolitan Police moved up to sixth place with a 5-1 win at bottom club Molesey, two places ahead of Dulwich Hamlet, 2-1 winners at struggling Leatherhead.

At the other end of the table, Whitstable moved out of the bottom six places following their 3-0 home win against Chatham Town, whilst 21st club Horsham YMCA picked up a valuable home point with a 1-1 draw with Whyteleafe.

RYMAN YOUTH LEAGUE

Four Ryman Youth League matches were played last week, all home wins, plus two First Round Isthmian League Cup games.

Youth League leaders suffered their second defeat of the season as they lost 5-3 at Burgess Hill, Ryan Morden scoring a hat-trick for the home team.

Three days later second placed Kingstonian beat bottom club Horsham YMCA 11-0 to record the highest ever win in the Youth League. Michael Mullen and Mark Watkins both scored four goals in the win as Kingstonian moved four points behind the Young Dons in top place, with two games in hand, with the two clubs meeting for the first time this season on Thursday, 13th December.

In the other two League games, Worthing beat Staines Town 7-1 and Leatherhead beat Tooting & Mitcham United 3-1.

In the Isthmian Youth Cup, Northwood and Boreham Wood finished at 2-2 after extra time, Boreham Wood winning in the penalty shoot-out, whilst Carshalton Athletic beat visitors Horsham 3-1.

ISTHMIAN YOUTH CUP

The updated draw for the Second Round of the Isthmian Youth Cup is:

Harrow Borough vs. Boreham Wood
Bury Town vs. Wingate & Finchley
Brentwood Town vs. Leyton
Maidstone United vs. Folkestone Invicta
Carshalton Athletic vs. Worthing
Tonbridge Angels vs. Burgess Hill Town
Molesey vs. Staines Town or Walton & Hersham
Leatherhead vs. Kingstonian

Matches are to be played by 31st December 2007.

CLUB GOSSIP

BILLERICAY TOWN FC

Club statement from chairman Steve Kent:

"The decision to relieve Matt Jones of his duties as Billericay's Town's Football Manager was made only after long and careful consideration. We are all bitterly disappointed to suffer a sixth defeat in our last seven league games, but that was not the only factor involved in reaching a decision.

Our club has an urgent need to improve results, but what's important is the medium and long term future of Billericay Town FC, and this was the overriding factor in making what was a difficult, but considered decision.

In the immediate future Jason Broom and Grant Gordon will take the reigns, they took charge of their first training session in midweek which was very productive; they have the full support of the players and are looking forward to their first game as Managers.

I had a good meeting with them after training, in which they laid down a clear and concise plan of action which included expanding the size of our squad, establishing closer links with, and creating a clear path of opportunity for our reserve's, and re-establishing a scouting network.

Let's get behind the Management, support the team, and enjoy being supporters of Billericay Town FC."

CHELMSFORD CITY FC

"I want to stay at Chelmsford." These are the words of previously on-loan Grays Athletic striker James Lawson which is sure to bring a smile to all City supporters after he tied-up a deal to keep him with the Clarets until the end of the season this week.

The former Southend United youngster, who is still only 20, has scored four goals, which have helped maintain City's lead at the summit of the Ryman League Premier Division. He added: "I think I have started well and I'm glad that I have scored a few goals. I will hopefully be able to build on my start. I feel settled here and the boys have made me feel welcome. I was looking to join Chelmsford a little while ago, but I wanted to stay in full-time football so I went Grays, but it didn't work out for me there. I know most of the staff and a couple of players and I know it's a good club."

It wasn't too long ago that Lawson was promoted with Southend into the Coca-Cola Championship, but unfortunately the Basildon-based striker knew this would signal the end with the Seasiders: "When we got promoted I felt a lot of players were bought and it then became harder for me to get into the team. When you don't get in the team, your confidence starts to go, so I felt I needed to start again."

Lawson has acknowledged that some people may see leaving Southend to join a lower league outfit as a fall, but he doesn't believe this is necessarily true. "I never saw leaving Southend as a step down, due to the fact that I wasn't playing much anyway. I was a youngster at Southend, just coming off the bench, but this is the first time I'm playing week in, week out."

James has featured eight times since his arrival from Grays, but in such a short space of time he has recognised the quality and intent of the club. "All of the players are technically very good here, that's why we're currently top of the league. To be honest, promotion should be achieved. I'm not putting any pressure on, but we are the best attacking and passing team in the league. The number one priority is promotion, it's what we want and need."

Although Lawson has made a bright start to life in the claret shirt, he is all too aware that you can take nothing for granted, continuing: "One day you think you are flying high with Southend, then you are back where you started trying to get into a team. At the moment I just want to take it as it comes. All I want is to be in the team and scoring goals.”

The Clarets are Lawson’s sixth club in three years and, whilst the youngster wants to play at a higher level again in the future, he has accepted it may take time. “It would be nice to be recognised again but, at the moment, the most important aspect is to be playing. There is no point in me being recognised just to be sitting on the bench again. I’m enjoying my football again now.”

HORSHAM FC

Horsham scored a late equaliser to give themselves the chance of drawing one of the giants in The FA Cup after they held League One Swansea 1-1 in their Second Round tie at a sodden Atspeed Stadium.

Lewis Taylor’s penalty seven minutes from time was enough to put John Maggs’ minnows into Sunday’s Third Round draw, where the likes of Chelsea, Manchester United, Liverpool and Arsenal enter the fray.

The game was delayed by a torrential downpour that lasted most of the afternoon, but when it kicked off Horsham made light of the four divisions and 100 league places that separated the Ryman Premier League side from their opponents, who top League One.

Goalkeeper Paul Seuke was superb all evening as he denied Roberto Martinez’s Swans’ almost single-handedly, making superb stops from Warren Feeney, Andrea Orlandi and Alan Tate within the first 15 minutes.

With Horsham having weathered the storm their more illustrious visitors took the lead five minutes before the break, Spanish forward Guillen Bauza sweeping home impressively after Feeney had cut the ball back to him from the byline.

Despite lacking no little effort the heavy pitch appeared to be taking its’ toll on the non-league side, whose semi-professional players were clearly lacking in fitness compared to their opponentns.

But, shortly after Thomas Butler had hit the bar for Swansea with a superb curling shot, Horsham hauled themselves level.

And it was a true FA Cup fairytale as substitute Lee Farrell, who is deaf and communicates with his team-mates through sign language and lip reading, turned defender Alan Tate, who hauled him to the ground.

It was left to Taylor to smash the penalty past Dorus De Vries, sparking scenes of jubilation, which were repeated when the home side survived five tense minutes of stoppage time to claim a famous draw and a replay that could make them one of the sides to avoid in Sunday’s draw.

KINGSTONIAN FC

Former Kingstonian goalkeeper Richard Martin is staggered by his turnaround from Brighton & Hove Albion reject into Manchester City’s Premiership squad.

The 20-year-old was released by the Seagulls in the summer and was on the verge of signing for Blue Square South side Dorchester Town, when a one month loan at the Premiership giants turned into a season-long stay.

In 2005-06, Martin enjoyed a 13-match unbeaten spell at Kingsmeadow under former boss Ian McDonald, which helped the club rise from the relegation zone to the edge of the Ryman League Division One South play-offs. Surrey Senior Cup-winning manager McDonald believes his side would have stood a chance of promotion had the Liverpool-born star remained part of his squad. And the young keeper has admitted he still has a soft spot for Ks and their role in his journey back from the soccer scrapheap.

"I had a great time at Kingstonian. It was the first sort of senior men's football I had tasted and I couldn't have wished for a better experience," he said. "I had a good little spell there and am pretty proud of it.

"It is good to have a 13-match unbeaten spell on your CV, particularly because Ks are such a well-known non-League club. I don't know whether scouts look that far down the league, but it doesn't do you any harm. Someone remembers you can play a bit and I definitely think my time at Kingstonian has had an influence since.

"I still keep an eye on their results even now."

Martin won a player of the month award for the reserves during his initial loan spell at Eastlands and was signed permanently when first-team keepers Andreas Isaksson and Joe Hart were sidelined through injury. Ironically, he has since been out with a shoulder injury himself, but he is determined to make the most of his second chance, which has seen him already appear in a reserve team Manchester derby - where he lined up against 19-year-old Brazilian star Anderson.

"It is amazing how things happen in football and there is no doubt this is a hell of a chance for me," he added. "I never expected to be signed on, so I wouldn't rule out playing for the first team this season. You never know how things work out in this game.

"I just hope I can make the most of it once I'm back from injury in mid-December and see where it goes from there."

STAINES TOWN FC

The dream may have ended, but despite the result, there was nothing but pride and wonderful memories to savour after the greatest chapter in the history of Staines Town football club.

They could not have gone out to more worthy opponents, under the helm of Darren Ferguson, whose father Sir Alex watched from the stands accompanied by Sir Trevor Brooking, the 'Posh' carried on where they left off against Brentford and the game was all but over inside fifteen minutes. On another day it could have been a lot closer, but Peterborough did their homework and came out completely focused with the threat of another giant killing looming on their minds after seeing us eliminate Stockport in the previous round, and they sure did not want another repeat.

Mark Nwokeji came close for Staines in the opening minutes, his effort blazed over the bar, however the 'Posh' opened the scoring when Craig Mackail-Smith fired into the roof of the net from close range following Shaun Allaway's fine initial save. Indeed, if it had not been for Allaway, the score may have been a lot more. A flying save from a free kick just outside the area reinforced this, as Marcel Nugent was replaced by Adam Thompson after straining his hamstring. The 'Posh' increased their lead when a short clearance fell to Aaron McLean who despite the block from Allaway, fell kindly for him to smash into the net. Mackail-Smith added the third from close range minutes later to effectively kill the game.

The second half really was about playing for pride, but as the Swans pushed forward in search of a goal, it left them exposed at the back, the deadly Mackail Smith finishing the rout with a further two goals. The Swans had their moment in the previous round and it was always going to be difficult to raise their physical and mental game to such heights, also catching the wrong opponents at the wrong time finally put paid to their dream.

So with heads held high, there really was no disgrace in the scoreline, every single Staines player a hero, masterminded by Chairman Alan Boon and manager Steve Cordery who has answered his critics this season. They are ready to take Staines Town football club to the next level.

Before, not many people had heard of Staines Town, but we are now well and truly on the football map and with a few quid in the bank to boot, there really is no excuse for the people of Staines to stay away! Well placed in the Ryman Premier division, just behind the leaders with games in hand, we can have a real shot at the title and challenge for promotion to the Conference Leagues. Football in Staines is very much alive....and doesn't everyone now just know it!!!

WEALDSTONE FC

Watford academy graduate Alex Campana has completed his move to Ryman League Premier Division side Wealdstone on a month's loan.

The 19-year-old wideman will join the Hornets' neighbours in order to play competitive football. He made the move because Watford's reserves will be out of action until the start of 2008.

Fellow academy graduates Theo Robinson and John-Joe O'Toole spent time on loan with Wealdstone last season.

TONBRIDGE ANGELS FC

Tonbridge Angels Football Club have been handed a dream ticket in the next round of the FA Trophy after pulling Conference side Oxford United out of the hat.

It has been a difficult season for the Angels, who for much of the campaign have been languishing near the bottom of the Ryman Premier League and then last month, had to part company with the management duo of Tony Dolby and Mike Rutherford.

However, the club turned to former Horsham assistant manager Tommy Warrilow who has transformed the Angel's fortunes with three wins and a draw.

The last of these wins came last Saturday against Burnham in the FA Trophy which has now set up a money-spinning tie with former league giants, Oxford United at the Kassam Stadium on December 15.

Warrilow's side have steadily eased their way up the Ryman Premier and a win against today's opponents – East Thurrock United, could see the Angels reach the top half of the table for the first time this season.

WITHAM TOWN FC

Witham Town Football Club have re-signed David Hawes from Great Wakering Rovers, the 20 year old player who left Witham on the 13th October returns to Spa Road a month after leaving. David was signed in time their midweek away League fixture at Dartford. Witham find themselves fourth in the form table for Ryman Division 1 North with a record of four wins from the last six league games.
