CLUB GOSSIP

CARSHALTON ATHLETIC FC

Carshalton Athletic have moved quickly to strengthen their squad with the signing on loan of Lewis Gonsalves and Zak Graham from neighbours Sutton United. Gonsalves is an experienced central defender and Graham is a promising young forward who has progressed through the ranks at Gander Green Lane. Manager Hayden bird commented, "I would like to welcome both players to Carshalton Athletic and hope they will enjoy every success at Colston Avenue."

HENDON FC

Wayne O'Sullivan made his Stevenage Borough debut on Saturday after completing his move to the Blue Square Premier Division high-fliers from Hendon.

The 23-year-old, who arrived at Claremont Road in the summer of 2006, has signed an initial 18-month contract, with the option of a further year, following a string of impressive displays this season.

O'Sullivan had netted 18 times in 31 appearances for Hendon this season, winning the Ryman League Golden Boot award for December after scoring eight times in the month, and manager Gary McCann admitted that there had been considerable interest in the player from other clubs for several months.

"Wayne had been the subject of a number of offers from clubs in this league and the Conference South," he said. "His attitude and work-rate have been top-class and he has never given less than 100 per cent in both training and matches.

"We are very pleased that he has gone to a big club, as he will have the chance to prove just how good he can be. It is a great chance for him, playing under a manager as experienced and well respected as Peter Taylor."

As one of the terms of the transfer, Stevenage will play Hendon in a pre-season friendly in the summer. Meanwhile, Hendon have completed the permanent signing of Sam Page, the defender who has spent the past three months at loan at Claremont Road from MK Dons. Fellow defender Alan Massey has joined the Greens on loan from Wycombe Wanderers.

LEATHERHEAD FC £5000 DONATION TO THE RAINBOW TRUST FROM THE TANNERS FA CUP RUN

On Friday 25th January Leatherhead Football Club presented the Rainbow Trust with a cheque for £5000 from the Football Association. This money came from the FA Community Shield match between Chelsea and Manchester United at the start of the this season and the Tanners were asked to nominate a local charity because they reached the First Round Proper of the FA Cup last season.

Tanners Chairman Tim Edwards and his wife Christine are undertaking the Karma Enduro charity challenge in India this autumn. This is a two week journey driving a Hindustan Ambassador car (basically a 1950's Morris Oxford) for 2000km from Goa up into the Western Ghat mountains and then to Kerala in Southern India. One of the main beneficiaries is the Rainbow Trust, based in Leatherhead. As a result the Club made the Rainbow Trust their nominated charity.

When a child is diagnosed with a life threatening or terminal illness the Rainbow Trust provide a helping hand, a listening ear and a shoulder to cry on when things get tough. The families they support say they give them the strength to carry on. The Rainbow Trust is currently supporting seven families who have a terminally ill child in the area surrounding Fetcham Grove alone. Rainbow House is three miles away and is a respite house offering a much needed break away for one hundred and fifty families each year.

Earlier this season the Tanners had an unexpected letter from the FA to say that all 124 clubs competing in the FA Cup 2006/7 from the First Round Proper onwards were invited to take an equal share of the £620,000 pool with an additional £195,000 going to the FA Charity Partners. This meant that £5000 was available from the FA Community Shield Distribution for a local charity.

Tim Edwards says: 'Our FA Cup run last season brought a lot of joy to players and supporters alike and the prize money enabled us to refurbish the Bar @the Grove. We will all have great memories from those games but now there is an added bonus which we did not anticipate. Our £5000 donation will be spent by the Rainbow Trust to provide support to local families. I hope the Leatherhead players who achieved this will be very proud - let's hope we can do it again before too long!'

'The Rainbow Trust helps one in ten families who have a child with a life threatening or terminal illness. For every child they help there are nine that don't receive their special care. Only a lack of funding holds Rainbow Trust back.'

MAIDSTONE UNITED FC

Maidstone United duo Butch Ulph and Chris Smalling both made their international debuts today as they represented England Schoolboys U18 against their Australian counterparts at Shrewsbury Town's New Meadow Stadium.

Both players were selected in the starting XI as the Young Lions secured a well earned 2-0 victory in this season's opening international fixture. Ulph was selected at right back whilst Smalling played as the right sided centre back.

A dozen or more Stones supporters made the early morning trek down to Shropshire to support these two starlets and they made their presence felt by displaying two large St

George's flags with the club name emblazoned upon them.

Both goals came in the first half with Chris Smalling supplying an assisting touch with a header for the first goal scored by Tom Siddons of Lincolnshire. Tom Grice of Liverpool and Merseyside scored England's other goal England used all 21 of their squad players in this game and therefore Butch Ulph came off at half time after giving a solid performance during the opening 45 minutes of the game as he got forward on the right flank on numerous occasions. Chris Smalling was one of only 2 England players to play for the entire 90 minutes and he had an impressive game. However, he did pick up a caution in the first half for a late tackle and was maybe fortunate not to have seen yellow again in the second half with a crunching challenge that led to one of the Aussie players being replaced as a result of the challenge!

With little more than 5 minutes of the game remaining, Smalling saw a header sail narrowly over the Aussie's cross bar. As he ran back to his defensive position he held his head knowing that he probably should have scored his first international goal.

The England squad will reconvene over the February school holidays and travels to Villareal in Spain for a three day warm weather training camp. The next international fixture is away to Northern Ireland at Glenavon FC on Monday 10th March and this will be followed by games against Wales at Haverfordwest FC, Republic Of Ireland at Sunderland FC and Scotland at Wembley Stadium.

WORTHING FC

Crawley Town left-back Jamie Lovegrove has begun a loan move at Worthing, where he will line-up alongside his brother Dean.

Jamie, 17, who is at his second season at Reds, has joined the Ryman League Division One South club on a match-by-match basis. He impressed Rebels' joint-managers Alan Pook and Danny Bloor during Crawley's 2-1 victory in the Sussex Senior Cup quarter-final on Tuesday night, when he was named Crawley Observer's Man of the Match.

Reds' boss Steve Evans said: "He was outstanding at Worthing on Tuesday night and certainly has been working hard over the last couple of weeks. It makes sense for him to go and get some match practice instead of taking him to Woking where he would have had a place at best on the bench."

Lovegrove played the full 90 minutes in Worthing's 4-3 home defeat by top of the table Tooting and Mitcham on Saturday.

Dominant Foot: Right, weight: 14st (89kg)
